tion Illegal.

SUSPENDS EXECUTIVE

Senate Follows Up Action
of Other Branch—Walton at His Office

BULLETIN
Oklahoma City, Oct. 24.—Lieutenant Governor Trapp today was restrained from acting as Governor.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 24.—Although suspended from the governorship of Oklahoma by action of the Oklahoma Senate, following impeachment last night on two of 22 counts by the House of Representatives, John Callaway Walton came to his office at the capitol as usual today.

Lieutenant Governor Martin Edward Trapp, who has been a figure in Oklahoma politics since 1914, serving three four-year terms as lieutenant governor prior to the present term, was acting governor today pending the Senate trial in which Governor Walton's further political life is at stake.
"I shall observe the law," was the only statement Lieutenant Governor Trapp would make today. However, he said he expected to have a formal statement ready some time today.
Governor Walton had nothing to say. It is understood, however, in defense counsel circles, that a general demurrer to all charges will be made on the ground the impeachment session is illegal because Governor Walton called the extraordinary session to enact legislation against the Ku Klux Klan.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 24.—
Governor J. C. Walton was indicted on two articles of impeachment preferred before the house of representatives and was suspended from office by the senate. Lieutenant Governor M. E. Trapp now is Oklahoma's chief executive.

Only a few minutes elapsed between the governor's indictment on one count and his removal from authority.

Notified of the house's verdict, upon the first charge, the upper branch of the assembly immediately adopted, by a vote of 38 to 1, a resolution declaring that filing of the article "automatically suspends J. C. Walton as governor and the office with its duties and compensations devolves upon the lieutenant governor."

Walton refused to make any comment whatsoever. Trapp was in Sapulpa and was notified quickly of the action by both bodies. While the senate was stripping Walton of executive power the house was voting his impeachment on a second article,
the decision being transmitted forthwith to the senate chamber that it might be included in the bill of particulars.

Today the senate was resolved into a court of impeachment by Chief Justice J. T. Johnson of the state supreme court and proceeded immediately upon trial of the charges submitted to it by the house board of managers, who were appointed by Speaker
W. D. McBeck. Six days will be allowed defense and prosecutor to prepare for trial.

The impeached governor's friends predict that Walton will commence his fight at once to retain office. He is expected to issue a pardon. Secretary of State Sneed will refuse to attest it. The beneficiary will, therefore, swear out a writ of habeas corpus in the criminal court of appeals.
The senate's suspension power will be put to the test, but the members contend that the senate ranks even the supreme court and its judicial acts are supreme and final.

Governor Walton was impeached,
first, upon a charge of felonious division of health department funds for the purpose of paying his private chauffeur's salary of $200 a month.
It was sustained without debate by a vote of 80 yeas to 17 nays. The second article alleged violation of the state constitution in preventing assembling and functioning of a legally called grand jury in Oklahoma county by the exercise of military power. The vote was 75 yeas against 23 nays.
Twenty additional articles remain to be determined.

Alton Covell, Arthur Covell & Murder Chart, etc.

Arthur Covell, 46, a cripple, is under arrest in Mansfield, Ore., after having confessed, the police assert, that he planned the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Elba Covelli. While the actual murder was committed by Mrs. Covell's 16-year-old stepson, Alton, Arthur Covell acknowledges he planned
the death and used this astrological chart to hoodwink the boy into believing the stars had ordered the crime committed. Covell, an astrologer and mystic, is well educated. Evidence in the hands of police indicates that he planned murder other crimes. The "death sign" is shown at the bottom of the chart he used in pursuing the boy to murder his step-mother.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES MADE IN BUREAU PROBE

Washington, Oct. 24.—The senatorial investigation of the United States Veterans Bureau was directed today to the slaying of "red tape"
from the care of America's disabled world war veterans.

By summoning members of the bureau's legal department to the witness stand, the Senate investigating committee sought to determine a remedy for protracted delays in the award of compensation, the payment of soldier claims and the hospitalization of wounded veterans. The legal department, where most of the bureau's business was delayed by legal technicalities, has been blamed for throwing a wall of "red tape" around the care of disabled veterans.

Evidence of graft in the treatment of veterans already unearthed by the investigation has prompted the committee to take steps toward the recovery of money illegally expended. The first step was to interrogate the bureau's law forces on what efforts were made to recover hundreds of dollars paid out either to soldiers on illegal claims for compensation or to professional men for services never rendered the war wounded.

The committee was informed that at least $1,000,000 was paid out to former service men on illegal compensation claims. These cases comprised the type in which disabled veterans were discovered later to have been injured in private industry and not in the service of the nation. Practically none of this money was ever recovered
because it had been spent by the recipients before the bureau discovered the errors. There were from 5,000 to 10,000 of these cases, it was said.

Washington, Oct. 24.—A startling sensational investigation of the affairs of the United States Veterans bureau under the administration of Colonel Charles R. Forbes, of Seattle.

Elias H. Mortimer, Washington representative of a St. Louis contracting firm, testified that Colonel Forbes had given him "advance information" concerning the cities for building veterans hospitals and that in return for this he "loaned" Forbes $5,000, which has never been paid back. Mortimer said he got the money from his employers and gave it to Forbes in the bathroom of a room in a Chicago hotel.

STORM OFF ATLANTIC COAST HAS SUBSIDED

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 24.—The great northeast storm, which has prevailed along the Virginia coast for the last two days blew itself out during the night and today a checkup shows that no great amount of damage has been done.

The lightsight at Cape Charles, swept to sea, after she had broken
from her moorings, later was towed into the buoy-ward at Portsmouth by the cutter Manning. She will be back at her station when the heavy seas subside. No further confirmation of the reported distress of the British steamer West Moreland has been reported at coast guard headquarters here. The Danish steamer Phoenix, reaching Newport News, reported picking up "sos" calls, purporting to have come from the West Moreland, giving her position as 180 miles east of Cape Henry. The cutter Kickapoo, in the vicinity, found no traces of her nor could she establish wireless communication with the British steamer.
The police patrol boat has been notified to maintain a watch for the fishing boat Mable H. of Whitwood, N. J., adrift in the Chesapeake and probably being carried out to sea.

There are six men aboard.

New York, Oct. 24.—While three persons are dead and more than a score injured, with great destruction of property, as a result of the gale raging between Maine and Florida, the comforting assurance came today that the drought throughout the Atlantic states is broken.
More than two inches of rain has fallen in the area. The weather bureau expected the rain to continue today.

MINER KILLED
New Lexington, O., Oct. 24.—Michael Erwin, 46, Corning miner, was killed when caught under a fall of slate in the Ohio Collieries mine at Congo. He leaves a wife and eight children.

HARVEY DECLARES IT'S UP TO EUROPE; U. S. IS PREPARED

Washington, Oct. 24.—Colonel George Harvey spoke with the entire approval of President Coolidge and Secretary of State Hughes when he informed the world last night in his farewell speech in London that the United States is willing to help Europe settle her troubles if Europe wishes it.

London, Oct. 24.—The United States government is still prepared to participate in a European conference to fix the amount of German reparations to avert economic disaster.

This message was delivered by Ambassador George Harvey at a farewell banquet given him by the Pilgrims society.

"A year ago it was apparently the universal opinion in Europe that the crux of the settlement lay in the determination of the amount of reparations Germany could really pay.
America came to the door of Europe and, lo and behold, the door was closed. The United States was not wanted. What could any self-respecting nation do? The United States went home.

"Conditions on the continent have changed somewhat during the last 11 months, but there is no material difference in the fundamental situation. Under President Coolidge, as under President Harding, the United States stands quite ready to help in any practicable way to promote the recovery and re-establishment of economic stability throughout the world. We are willing to come in as soon as we are asked, but surely we can not be expected to smash in the door."

UPHOLD CRABBE ACT IN COURT RULING

Columbus, Oct. 24.—The Crabbe prohibition act and the city ordinances conforming to it were upheld by the supreme court in ruling on an appeal made by Charles White from his conviction of violating a Findlay ordinance against liquor.

White was guilty of illegal possession under the ordinance, which is identical with the Crabbe act. His conviction was affirmed by the court of appeals. He then went to the supreme court, claiming the Crabbe act and the ordinance to be unconstitutional because of an alleged discrimination—an immunity existing in the act in favor of occupants or owners of bona fide private dwellings, under which it is lawful for such occupant or owner to possess or give away intoxicants. He claimed this angle of the act gives immunity to the fortune-ate for an action which is a crime for the homeless.

J. F. HALE AWARDED DAYTON CITY JOB

John Flotron Hale, of Dayton, formerly in engineering work here for the city of Xenia, has been made city engineer of Dayton to succeed Ivan E.
Houk, resigned, and will assume his duties November 1 at a salary of $3,- 000 a year.

Mr. Hale was employed in the engineer's office, Dayton, several years ago, and was later connected with the private engineering firm of Smith and Foster, with which concern he was located in Xenia for some time assisting in the engineering work incident to local street paving.

Later Mr. Hale was division superintendent of the State Highway Department in charge of the southern division of the state, and when the administration changed he became connected with J. I. Geiger, Dayton contractor.

CHICK EVANS IS NOW A BANKRUPT

Charles "Chick" Evans, one of the greatest golfers in the world, has admitted he will go through bankruptcy
in Chicago, owing $400,000 and possessing nothing. With $150,000 of his own and many thousands he borrowed.
Evans sought a fortune in the stock market and lost.

THANK OFFERING REPORTED LARGE

The largest thank offering ever given by the Xenia Presbytery, amounting to over $3,000, was reported for the year, at the forty-fifth annual meeting of the Xenia Presbyterial Missionary Societies of the United Presbyterian Church, held at Clifton, last Thursday
according to officers of the society.

Another interesting report given at the meeting was that of Mrs. George Moore, editor of the Missionary Magazine who received 116 subscriptions to the Magazine during the year.

The work of the missions in India,
by Miss E. Josephine Martin, Mrs. T. J. Finney, the "mother" of the missionaries in Egypt led the quiet hour. Mrs. O. H. Milligan, General Thank offering secretary, told of the work of the Women's Board and also gave a Thank-offering address.

CHILD SHOT

Dayton, O., Oct. 24.—Mary Jane
Evans, 4-year-old daughter of Gilbert Evans, negro, was shot and probably fatally wounded by her brother, Gilbert, aged 6, in a bedroom of the Evans home, the bullet striking the child in the breast and passing through her body.

RAIL DEAL RUMORED

Chillicothe, O., Oct. 24.—It is reported here that Columbus and Cleveland interests may purchase the Chillicothe street railway lines. One local official denied negotiations were being conducted, but admitted the property was being "looked over."

INFANT BURNED TO DEATH

Gallipolis, O., Oct. 24.—The year-old daughter of Mr. Root, Hocking Valley telegraph operator, was burned to death here when the home burned to the ground. Mr. Root was seriously burned when he attempted to save his daughter.

PLANS BURNS

Mt. Vernon, O., Oct. 24.—Fire in the plant of the MacGee-Starr Garrite company here completely destroyed the plant and caused damage estimated at between $40,000 and $50,000.
Defective wiring was thought to have caused the blaze.

THREE KILLED AT CROSSING

Ashtabula, O., Oct. 24.—Three persons were killed when a New York Central freight train struck an automobile at a crossing here. The dead:
Mr. and Mrs. Emil Aho and son,
Olavi, 6.

SCHOOL FOR CARPENTERS

Cleveland, Oct. 24.—A trade school for carpenter apprentices in the public schools is to be started at once.
This school will be governed co-operatively by the school board, the local carpenters' unions and carpenter contractors.

MEXICO SEEKS LOAN

Mexico City, Oct. 24.—The Mexican government is arranging the terms of a loan with New York financiers for $5,000,000 American gold. Graham
Ashmeals, representing Thomas W.
Amont, New York banker, is carrying on the negotiations.

SLIGHT ABATEMENT IN VIOLENCE SEEN; SCORE DEAD; HUNDREDS HURT

Reds, Driven From Hamburg Entrench Themselves In Suburbs—Reaction Against Secessionists Movement Occurs.

There was a slight abatement of violence in Germany today, although warfare still continued. From 20 to 35 persons were killed in disorders and fights. Hundreds were wounded.

The Reds, driven from Hamburg entrenched themselves in the suburbs and stubbornly resolved to give further battle.

Naval airplanes are protecting the Hamburg harbor.
Reaction against the Secessionist movement has developed in the Rhine-land. Ten separatists were beaten to death at Asachen (Aix La Chappelle) and the separatist mayor of Muenchen-Gladbach was murdered.
Information from official sources indicated that Bavaria is now the only German state not adhering to the reich. All the rest have promised loyalty.

Five hundred arrests have been made at Hamburg, where martial law was proclaimed.

Saxony is quiet under the iron rule of the federal military authorities.

Separatists are active in Pomerania and Mecklenburg, but no violence has been reported.

Berlin, Oct. 24.—The Rhenish palatinate—(district lying between Baden and Rhenish Prussia) declared in favor of autonomy today.
It is understood that the proclamation was not issued until after the separatist leaders conferred with the French military authorities.

A Reichswehr unit, composed of the famous Fifteenth division of Hussars was ordered to Wandsbeck, three miles from Hamburg, to be ready to aid the police in the event
Red aggressions increased.

Reports from Hamburg shortly afternoon stated that the communists were building a line of trenches
through the suburbs of Shiffbeck.
Up to that time, the sailors landed at Hamburg from a warship had not been employed but were being held in readiness for service.

International News Service learned from an authoritative source, that many officers of the reichswehr
in Bavaria are siding with the Berlin government and need only an order to prove their loyalty to the reich.

Reichswehr troops were ordered to intervene at Hamburg. Up until today, police had been used against the Reds in that city.

Fighting was still in progress at Hamburg this morning. Police were using hand grenades to dislodge the communists from their positions. Secessionists have become more active in Pomerania and Mecklenburg. Severe fighting was reported from Aachen.

G. O. P. LEADERS TO HELP COOLIDGE

Washington, Oct. 24.—Money magnates and Republican leaders lunched with President Coolidge and afterwards conferred with him at length.
While there was no official announcement following the meeting, it is understood to have had these outstanding objects: To assure the president that the old guard in the organization has taken as a foregone conclusion that he has to be the standard-bearer in 1924, and that they are banking on him, and to assure ample finances for his campaign and for the party, with him at the helm.

The president's guests were: John T. Adams, chairman of Republican national committee; Fred W. Upham, treasurer; C. H. Huston, chairman of ways and means committee; former Governor Sproul, Pennsylvania;
E. T. Stotesbury, Philadelphia; W. R.
Wrigley, Chicago; James H. Stanley,
Denver, and Frank Stearns, Boston.

Incidental matters, such as the city to be favored with the next national convention, were discussed. Chicago is making the usual determined effort to secure the gathering, with Denver as the principal contender, it was stated.

SNAP SHOTS

A. H. Mitchell confessed to murdering Andrew Sherry and Mrs. Georgia Bryant, whose bodies were found in a house in Denver, Colo. Mitchell said jealousy of Sherry's attentions to Mrs. Bryant was the motive for the killing.

State police, searching for the body of Mrs. Nannie Dotson, believed to have been murdered two years ago, discovered remains of a woman and a child near the cabin of Ed Duncan, mountaineer, in Boone county, W. Va.

Three men were drowned when flood waters from the Washita river washed them over the power dam near Chickasaw, Okla.

Fires were reported from that city, threatening many buildings in the commercial district.

Hamburg spent a night of terror.
A flotilla of torpedo boats took food into the city. All night long firing was in progress. The clang of ambulances was continuous. More than 200 wounded persons were taken to hospitals or their homes.
Five hundred arrests have been made at Hamburg. A volunteer defense organization is being organized at Altona, near Hamburg.

MAKE SENSATIONAL CHARGES IN PROBE OF VET BUREAU

Washington, Oct. 24.—The implication that Colonel Charles R. Forbes, former director of the veterans' bureau, had "participated in" or "winked at" corrupt practices in connection with the veterans' bureau tuberculosis hospital site near Livermore, Cal., was read into the record of the senate investigation of the bureau by Major General John O'Ryan, counsel for the committee conducting the inquiry.

It was contained in a report made to O'Ryan by Judge A. E. Graupner, chairman of the rehabilitation committee of the American Legion at San Francisco. The report says:

"On June 28, 1922, Colonel Forbes was in San Francisco stopping at the Fairmont hotel. At that time the American Legion was satisfied that the transactions relating to the Livermore hospital were shady."

"John R. Quinn, the commander of the American Legion, and A. E.
Graupner, the district chairman of the rehabilitation committee, the secretary of the committee and the director of publicity of the committee of the legion called upon Director Forbes in his room in order to discuss the matter."

"At that time charges were made directly to Colonel Forbes that the purchase of the property was surrounded by graft; that the plans for the hospital were such as to excite suspicion and that the circumstances surrounding the open cultivation of the farm crop on the Livermore site were such as to lead the American Legion to believe that Colonel Forbes was participating in or openly winking at the corrupt transaction."

"At that time Director Forbes made no denial of any of the allegations made to him by the American Legion, and his whole justification seemed to be that as long as the property had been acquired and was suited to the purpose of a tuberculosis hospital, it was no concern of the American Legion what was paid for the property or how the money was disposed of."

"From that time on the matter was subject to suspicion, and on March 1 charges were placed in the hands of Brigadier General Sawyer in Washington. The matter was also called to the attention of Director Hines upon his resuming office."

The report also dealt with the alleged activities of Matthew O'Brien, a San Francisco architect, who appeared in Washington with political endorsements for his employment.
Charles Stratton, chief designer of the construction division of the bureau, testified that O'Brien was introduced to him by Forbes, who stated he had employed O'Brien to prepare plans for a tuberculosis hospital to be built on the Livermore site.
O'Brien was furnished a set of standard plans, and later came back with a set of drawings which Stratton characterized as "very poorly executed." O'Brien, Stratton testified, received $64,000 for these plans,
which were never used.

W. C. T. U WORKERS TOLD OF CAMPAIGN AGAINST CIGARETTE

Sixty-five workers of the W. C. T. U. in Greene County, attended the "red letter" meeting held at the home of Mrs. W. O. Custis, on South Detroit Street, Tuesday evening, honoring Miss Mary Wilgus, who is leaving soon for India, where she will be a companion to Miss Mary J. Campbell, W. C. T. U. worker, there.

The program of the evening opened with devotions by Mrs. A. M. Tonkinson, followed by a song, "The Nation's Going Dry." An instrumental selection was given by Miss Mamie Burrell with the saxophone and Mrs. Harold Whitt, at the piano.

The outstanding address of the evening was given by Mrs. Carrie L. Flatter, county president of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Flatter spoke of the work that had been accomplished along the lines of the harmful effects of narcotics. She said in part, "As we have outlawed all these narcotics except nicotine, our work now is to see that men are elected who will enforce these laws and to secure the protection of the childhood of our state and nation by outlawing the cigarette."

"We are glad to tell you that an open campaign is now on to secure a law prohibiting the manufacture, sale, advertisement or use of the cigarette in Ohio, and eventually in the nation. A campaign committee is now being organized to aid the campaign and all who want to help accomplish this great undertaking should at once confer with the headquarters office or the County President, for details of the work."

Mrs. Flatter's talk was followed by a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross" by Mrs. Raymond Wolf, accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Tilford.

Miss Mary B. Ervin, world and national leader in the L. T. L. work, told of her recent trip through Iowa, Illinois and Indiana, and the advancement of the work in those states. She extended greetings to Miss Campbell, through Miss Wilgus.

"The Swing" a clever reading was given by little Miss Doris Watkins. Mrs. Austin Black, who had charge of the large list of magazines and books sent by the W. C. T. U. to the Ohio Penitentiary last week, reported that 23 books, and 1130 pounds of magazines had been sent. Another large quantity will be sent soon.

Mrs. George Moore introduced Miss Josephine Martin, a missionary to India, who is in this country on furlough, who told of the conditions in that country. Miss Wilgus, the honor guest told of her plans in India. The members wished her "bon voyage" on her trip. The program closed with an instrumental.

TIME TO FACE THE FACTS

"So much has been said against the use of patent medicines that I have had a strong prejudice against them. But after four years doctoring with six different doctors, without results, for acute indigestion, gastritis, constipation, appendicitis and other ailments I was said to possess. I was encouraged to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, seeing what it had done for a friend similarly afflicted. I also was entirely relieved of my trouble, and am sure this medicine will do all and more than is claimed for it." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

tal selection by Miss Imogene Dean, and Miss Emily Lo Mar. A social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Custis was assisted by Mrs. Frank Fristoe, Mrs. George Fuller, Mrs. J. D. Hapner, and Mrs. Douglas Custis.

MONEY AT WORK

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds and Investments

SHORT SELLING STABILIZES MARKET

Short selling is an advantage to the community because it stabilizes prices.

The short seller goes against the crowd. He prevents crowd contagion from first wildly shooting prices sky high and then just as swiftly dropping them down again. The public buys in streaks; everybody wants to buy or sell, as the case may be, at the time when everyone else is doing it.

The short seller watches prices closely. When he believes a wave of buying has forced prices too high he sells. This tends to keep prices from going higher.

Finally the public all tries to sell at once which puts prices down again. When they get down to the point where the short seller thinks they are low enough, he buys in his stock to cover his short sale. This buying prevents a collapse of prices at the same time it makes money for the bear.

HOMELESS REFUGEES RETURN TO TOKIO

Return to Tokio. N.Y.L.

NEW BURLINGTON

A number from here attended the Ministerial conference held at the M. E. Church at Martinsville last week. Stanley Stephens and family spent the week end at Wilmington. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Carr and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bayless and family near Cuba.

Kent Holland and family of Xenia, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frazier of near Mamisburg spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore.

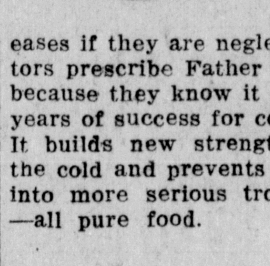

A long and seemingly unending line of refugees is pouring back into devastated Tokio to rebuild their wrecked homes and seek to ascertain if any of their belongings were spared in the earthquake and subsequent fire.

Medicine

"A common cold deserves your immediate and serious attention"—So writes a well-known physician, in pointing out the danger of neglecting a cold.

"Early treatment of a cold will spare you days of suffering and danger," he says. Doctors will tell you that colds are very likely to develop into serious and even fatal diseases if they are neglected. Many doctors prescribe Father John's Medicine because they know it has had over 68 years of success for colds and coughs. It builds new strength to throw off the cold and prevents its development into more serious trouble. No drugs—all pure food.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PARTY AT KYLE HOME TUESDAY

Over fifty members of Judge C. H. Kyle's Sunday School Class of Second United Presbyterian Church, enjoyed a Halloween party at the Kyle home on West Third Street Tuesday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Leon McClellan, members of the class who will spend the winter in the south.

Members of the committee in charge of the program appeared in masked costume. The program of the evening consisted of a piano solo by Miss Margaret Moorehead, a reading by Mrs. C. P. Proudfoot, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Graham Bryson. Games and contests were amusing features.

The refreshment course carried out the Halloween idea, evident in the decorations of the Kyle home. The evening closed with the recitation of the 100th psalm, and prayer by the Rev. C. P. Proudfoot. Mrs. E. S. Foust, is president of the class, while Mrs. Harold Bryson, and Mrs. Leigh Taylor were members of the program committee.

GIVEN SURPRISE MONDAY EVENING

Robert and Edwin Watkins of the Union neighborhood were given a pleasant surprise Monday evening by two Sunday school classes of Union Church and a few other friends. The guests spent a pleasant evening with games and music. Later in the evening winners were roasted in the old-fashioned fire place.

Those who took part in the evening's activities were the Misses Louise Ledbetter, Myrtle Core, Ruth and Helen Grant, Carrie Williamson, Mildred Ragar, Mary Sanders, Edith McDonald, Lucille Anderson, Anna Ellison, Mary Mansfield, Freda Laurens, Claribel Watkins and the Messrs. Harold Armentrout, Fred Shoemaker, Harold and Raymond Sanders, Dean Moore, Clarence Hopping, Thomas Conklin, Kenneth Ragar, Russell Fudge, Herbert Wheeler, Harold Ellison, Junius King, Kenneth Ledbetter, Paul McDonald, Charles Keiter, Charles Sanders, Robert and Edwin Watkins and the Sunday School teachers Mr. and Mrs. Heman Davies.

STORE EMPLOYEES ARRANGE SURPRISE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rakestraw, on Maple Street, was the scene of a gay revelry, Tuesday night, when about forty guests, employees of the Hutchison & Gibney Co., and their families, staged a complete surprise on Mr. Rakestraw on the occasion of his birthday.

Many of the guests attended the affair masked, which added to the amusing features of the evening. Games, music, and contests were enjoyed, followed by a refreshment course of sandwiches, pickles, coffee, ice cream and cake. Mrs. Zana Buttz and Mr. T. E. Craig won the prizes in the floral contest.

SPRING HILL SOCIAL

Members of the Spring Hill Parent-Teacher Association are planning for a Halloween social at the school, Friday evening. The public and patrons of the school are invited to attend. Many novelty features will be furnished for amusement.

EXPECTED HOME FROM WEST IN TEN DAYS

Mrs. Anna P. Holmes, Mrs. Jannette Ervin and Miss Mable Collins are expected to arrive home in a few days. Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Ervin left California Monday night. They will stop off in St. Louis for a few days where Miss Collins will join them and accompany them home.

Mrs. Holmes went to California for the Women's Missionary Society while Mrs. Ervin has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Kelly of San Francisco.

"GARDENS", TOPIC OF CLUB PROGRAM

"Gardens" was the subject of the afternoon program of the Junior Woman's Club at the home of Mrs. R. H. Kingsbury, on Roger Street, Tuesday. The papers of the afternoon were "Gardens in History and Fiction," by Mrs. Reed Madden and "Bouquet of Garden Verses," by Mrs. J. K. Williamson.

ENTERTAINS CLUB MEMBERS TUESDAY

Mrs. G. W. Kuhn entertained the members of her card club at three tables of bridge at her home on N. King Street, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. James Hibbert and Mrs. Frank L. Johnson, won the score prizes. Mrs. Kuhn served a luncheon course.

J. B. Watt, of Chicago, who has been spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Cherry, of East Main Street, will leave for his home, Wednesday night.

Mrs. Amanda Humston is very ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Laura Hurley on Chestnut Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner and son, LeMar, of Flint, Michigan and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis N. Jones and little "Buddie" Jones, son of Mr. Raymond Jones of Springfield, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Marion Jones and daughter, Betty of near Fairfield.

Miss Jean B. Elwell and Miss Maude Elbright will leave Wednesday evening for Cleveland, where they will spend a few days visiting friends.

Mrs. Indiana Ellis, of Home Avenue underwent an operation for the removal of a cataract over her right eye at the Espey Hospital, Wednesday morning. She is improving nicely. Dr. Reed Madden performed the operation.

BREAK A COLD IN FEW HOURS

Every druggist here guarantees each package of "Pape's Cold Compound" to break up any cold and grippe misery in a few hours or money returned. Stiffness, pain, headache, feverishness, inflamed or congested nose and head relieved with first dose. These safe, pleasant tablets cost only a few cents and millions now take them instead of sickening quinine.

MOCK WEDDING HELD IN SPRING VALLEY.

A group of young people participated in a mock wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tod Walton, in Spring Valley, Tuesday evening. Miss Bee Walton, was the "bride" while Mr. Robert Gagner of Xenia, was the "bridegroom." Herbert Patterson of Xenia, acted as the officiating "minister" and Miss Laura Copsey as the "bridesmaid."

LODGE SOCIAL.

The regular monthly social of the Pride of Xenia Council, Daughters of America, will be held at the lodge hall, Thursday evening. Mrs. Alice Smith and Mrs. Stella Shoemaker will be the hostesses.

Miss Bertha Hook, of West Second Street, is spending two weeks with her uncle, Mr. Levi Dillingham at Bloomington, Ill.

Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Gekeler, of Cleveland, will spend the week end here with Mrs. Gekeler's mother, Mrs. Henry Hale, of West Main street. Dr. Gekeler, former pastor of the First Reformed Church, will conduct the services there Sunday. He is now president of the Ohio Synod of the Reformed Church and editor of the Christian World.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Powers, of Port William, are visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Buck, of Maple Street.

Miss Etta Wilkins has resigned her position as chief supervisor at the Ohio Bell Telephone exchange, this city, to take a similar position at the central office in Springfield.

Miss Edwina Brown, of the Dadds Apartments, returned home Tuesday night after spending two months in Chicago the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dadds.

Mr. W. E. Cox of the Hooven and Allison Co., is confined to his home on West Third Street, by illness.

Mr. George Lampert is confined to his home on the Springfield pike, suffering from a severe cold.

Mrs. Sadie Spahr of North King St., is improving from an attack of illness from which she has been confined to her home for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Kelly of Yellow Springs, left Monday for Portland, Maine, where they will be the guests of their son, Mr. Oliver Kelly for the next few weeks. Their daughter, Miss Martha Kelly is also visiting her brother.

Miss Lucile Chambliss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Chambliss of West Second Street, who was painfully injured in an automobile accident in Dayton, Sunday night, was brought to her home, from the Miami Valley Hospital, Tuesday afternoon. She is resting comfortably.

Mrs. H. B. Williams, of West Third Street, fell at her home, Monday afternoon and sustained a fracture of her left hip. She is resting comfortably.

Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Scott attended the Sherwin Eddy meeting at Dayton, Wednesday. They attended a noon luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. and Dr. Scott was present at a meeting for ministers only in the afternoon. A meeting for the public will be held at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Eddy is a world-traveler and is prominently known.

Mrs. George Street, of Trinity M. E. Church and Mrs. D. W. Cosley and Mrs. Ed Lauman of the First M. E. Church are delegates to the annual meeting of the Home Missionary Societies of the West Ohio Conference, at Fremont, this week. Mrs. Cosley will give a talk at the meeting on the Missions at Honolulu, where she visited about a year ago.

Margaret Walker, of Chicago, who has been spending a week with her aunt, Mrs. T. S. Jones, of West Third Street, is leaving Wednesday night for her home.

The Pride of Xenia Thimble Club meeting which was to have been held Friday, has been postponed one week, owing to the illness of a member.

Mrs. Carrie L. Flatter, county president of the Greene County W. C. T. U., and Miss Mary B. Ervin, county leader in young people's work left Wednesday for Greenville, to attend the State Young People's Department Association convention, to be held from Wednesday to Friday. Delegates from the various Sunday Schools were elected to attend the meeting.

CITES RECORD OF CATHOLICS IN WAR

That 40 per cent of the fighting men in the U. S. service during the World War were Catholics although that denomination composes less than 20 per cent of the population of the country, was the answer given by F. J. Kirwin, London, state deputy of the Knights of Columbus to those who declare Catholics are not patriots and not 100 per cent Americans, here Tuesday night.

Mr. Kirwin delivered his address to members of Xenia Council, No. 1801, Knights of Columbus in connection with the annual installation of new officers elected recently. John Flynn, Springfield, district deputy, assisted in the installation of officers which was followed by a light luncheon.

The address of the state officer assailed those who maintained a bigoted attack on Catholics, but he declared the intolerant movement is rapidly dying out.

Mr. John Eyer will leave Wednesday evening for his home in Omaha, Nebraska, after a week's visit with his brother, Mr. William Eyer, who has been ill for several weeks. Mr. Eyer is now improved.

Mr. John J. Guldway, of Norwood, Ohio, former Xenian, was a visitor in Xenia, Wednesday.

DRINK WATER TO HELP WASH OUT KIDNEY POISON

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Begin Taking Salts

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean, like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which every one should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

WHEN CAN A MAN "READ AND WRITE ENGLISH"?

The Man From Over There.

The question is a grave one in New York, where a recent constitutional amendment makes literacy to this extent a qualification for voters who wish to cast their ballot or the first time. It is sufficient to be able to scrawl the words on the first page of a grammar-school primer—"I have a dog—mamma, see my dog—my dog can see me"—and having written them read them aloud to the judge of elections? Or must a fledgling voter spell thro a sonorous paragraph from the Declaration of Independence and write an essay on the New York election laws? The cus has gone to New York's court of final resot carried there by the State Attorney General.

SECRETARY OF STATE

Hughes said relations between the United States and its sister republics to the south were never more "satisfactory or carried better promise of mutual good will," speaking at the Columbus day conference of the Pan-American International Women's committee "I say this," he said, "after taking into account the complaining utterances that find place from time to time in the press and the criticism of those mentors, publicist who supply the tang which gives relish to our intellectual repasts. The millenium itself would turn out to be a tame affair, if no fault could be found with it." Mr. Hughes said he was happy "to say that there are no controversies with any of our sister republics which have not been settled or are not in process of adjustment." He called attention to the resumption of diplomatic relations with Mexico, the establishment recently of "an accord with Columbia," and added: "We are entering upon a period in our relations with Latin-American states notable for the absence of serious grievances." The Secretary referred also to the aid the American government had been able to give to "the promotion of peace and stability among the countries of Latin-America," pointing to the arbitration agreement between Chile and Peru worked out in Washington, to the conference of Central American republics and to the plans for withdrawal of American military forces from Santo Domingo.

WESTERN PROSPERITY

Senator Smoot, the efficient national legislator of Utah, has returned to Washington after spending several weeks in the western states. "The West has a renewed and strengthened appreciation of the Republican national administration. The people have confidence in President Coolidge, just as they had faith in President Harding. The west likes Coolidge and is giving his administration every encouragement and support," commented the western Senator. Senator Smoot is optimistic about the improved business situation in western states. He has noted market improvement in industrial and agricultural conditions. "Really, it looks like old times would soon be with us," commented Senator Smoot. "Industrial activities in the West is increasing its speed. The economic condition of the farmer of Rocky mountain state is considerably improved and should constantly grow better. Farmers are getting $8 a ton and better for sugar beets and there is a demand for all they can produce. They are getting $1.50 a bushel for potatoes. The stock raisers and especially the sheep raisers are doing well. The latter are getting a splendid price for wool and lambs. Our metal mines are all beginning to work again. Apple and peach crops are fine this year. The railroads are able to move the crops, the car situation being much better than last year."

Footprints

BY SIDNEY THATCHER

"If there is another war, and Europe is immensely fearsome that there will be, we will be in it. The world is so bound and knit together now that our participation is unavoidable. We need to be in an association so we may enter at our own terms if for no other reason. With the U. S. the league is nothing. It is a machinery of negotiation and if we were in it now we could prevent another war. Another war, I am convinced positively will be the end of civilization."—Fred E. Lumley, professor of sociology, Ohio State University.

"Where at one time only elderly men were trusted with the business of larger firms, one can now find bright, ambitious youngsters in their places because they have gained an early knowledge of business in schools."—F. F. Jordan, professor of economics, University of Cincinnati.

"We (Spain) are only pawns on the Mediterranean chessboard. We are reduced to the role of shock absorbers between England and France, English domination of the straits is vital to the British empire and England will support us for the simple reason that she cannot afford to have too strong or aggressive a neighbor in Gibraltar. She is checking France today as she checked Germany yesterday and as she has always checked powers which she considered a menace to the Empire."—Count Romanones, former Spanish Ambassador to France.

Young Alister McCormick left at the Church three times, is finally married. And that will be the last you'll ever hear of young Mr. McCormick.

SELF-INFLICTED WOUND FATAL

Marion, O., Oct. 24.—Charles B. Orwig died here from self-inflicted bullet wounds. Orwig, a candidate for state treasurer in 1920, shot himself through the head while seated in his automobile near Marion. Despondency over ill health resulting from loss of a leg by a shell explosion during the world war is given as the motive for the act.

CASE OF TYPHUS FOUND

Columbus, Oct. 24.—Mrs. Barnabas Vass, East Columbus, is suffering from typhus fever, health officials announced. It is the first typhus case in the history of this city and one of very few ever reported in Ohio. The Vass home has been quarantined. The disease is highly contagious, the mortality rate ranging from 10 to 60 per cent.

GERMANY'S RECORD

Today's Talk

AN OPEN LETTER TO MISS NOBODY.

I am past 19 years of age, and have felt all that you have written to me, so I think that I may be able to give you suggestion or so that will help you.

In the first place, at 19 we usually see "as through a glass, darkly." At 19 life looked very dark and puzzling to me. It usually does at that age. Much of it still looks puzzling and I am a little over twice that age now. But as we grow in years, we find that automatically compensations come to fill up the gaps of disappointment and loss.

But do not trade faith for a pot of frothy fun. Keep your mind and body and spirit clean and wholesome. The clean machine always runs smoothest and best and longest.

Learn to overlook. See the good in those about you whom you love. The world is full of interests. Get as many of them as possible and tie to them.

The road to happiness is found only as you lead others to that road. My favorite line is this: "He climbs highest who helps another up." Forget your own unhappiness and hunt out someone else who is unhappy and study out some way to make them happy.

Don't pity yourself. No one is worth that. But much more! Love life. Be glad that you have a chance at life. There is beauty everywhere if you will just open your eyes and see. At night you have the stars and the great heavens with their mystery and beauty; and during the day the trees, the birds and the moving of a great world right past your front door. Study books. Get the stories of those who have found life good and rich. Hold to that "heart's desire," my friend, and let nothing move you from its path. Be brave. Brush away the tears. Lift up your chin. Always be "just a little hopeful." Never give up. Success is sure to smile upon you, if you keep up a smile toward success.

And never forget that you are SOMEBODY. None of us is "nobody," unless we become that way through choice. And you want.

TAXIS ARE HELD AS PUBLIC UTILITIES

Columbus, Oct. 24.—Taxicabs were held to be public utilities and their owners were held responsible for acts committed by drivers on any trips made in a company's car at any time by an Ohio supreme court decision. The ruling came in the case of Korner & Son, Bucyrus taxi owners, against Gladys Cosgrove, who had won a suit against the company in the lower courts for the actions of a driver employed by Korner. Miss Cosgrove's victory was upheld.

Remarkable Kidney Relief

R. M. Fleener, Otterbein, Ind. Writes: "I had suffered from kidney trouble for twenty five years. Nothing helped me. Kept getting worse. Inflammation of bladder set in, and I gave up all hope. Was induced to try DODD'S. Took only two boxes, and I am now sound and well. I regard my cure as remarkable."

Do not let kidney or urinary trouble, drive away backache, pain, rheumatism, tired-worn out feeling with Dodd's Kidney Pills. Prompt relief money back. Large box 50 cents at your Drug Store, or direct by mail, but TRY THE DRUG STORE FIRST.

Never Gripe

Health Hints by the Father of Physical Culture

Of all the involuntary muscles the finest samples are those found in the heart, that organ which never ceases work for an instant while life lasts. Other involuntary muscles are those of the lungs, which carry on the work of respiration even when we are asleep. So, too, do the stomach, the liver and kidneys, the intestines and all of the other vital organs perform their various tasks through the constant contractions of their involuntary muscles. Thus the churning of the stomach brings about the performance of digestion. The involuntary muscles of the intestines force the contents along. The blood vessels and the lymphatics perform their offices by the aid of involuntary muscles.

Whether or not the involuntary muscles can be made, by direct effort of the will, to take on some of the voluntary characteristics is a question that cannot be decided with finality. It is not to be thought that the involuntary muscles can act wholly independent of the control of the nervous system. In fact, it is well known that the possessor of a finely organized nervous system will have healthier involuntary muscles, and this would seem to indicate complete nervous control of the involuntary muscles. We know that one can increase his heart beat by breathing much more rapidly; he can stimulate the churning of the stomach by an effort of the will; but here the involuntary muscles are forced into action by the voluntary muscles. In this way the involuntary muscles would seem to represent a finely adjusted automatism. Fundamentally, however, they really depend absolutely upon control of the nervous system. When influenced by the voluntary muscles in this seemingly automatic action, it is really the nerves which are first affected, they acting in turn upon the involuntary muscles. Let anything happen to the nerves and the involuntary muscles are motionless.

1903--Twenty Years Ago--1923

The first freeze-up of the season occurred last night and it froze so hard that a water pipe burst at the Rader brick yard north of this city. Rather early in the season for a freezeup. The thermometer marked 32 degrees at an early hour.

Mr. Lester Barnes, who contemplated going to Springfield to take a position has decided to remain in Xenia and continue at the old stand in the White Paper Store.

The Elks now have everything in shape so that on next Wednesday night rehearsals for the Big Minstrel Show will begin. A contract has just been closed by which they will be enabled to secure the advantage of $4,000 worth of new scenery, costumes etc. The old disreputable dinkey that has been having an eventful career in this city met with an accident a night or two ago which has put it out of business. The new dinkey which has been put on is a big improvement, being painted yellow and having vestibules.

The fury of the northland's blinding snow gale!
The indomitable power of the northwest mounted—Canada's "Red Coats".
The snow tracks—a northland battle—the great white sickness!
The honor of the "Mounted"—the man—the woman—and retribution!
Oh Boy! what a plot!

HOLLENCAMP WILL PLAY WITH ANTIOCH BALANCE OF SEASON

Tom Hollencamp, former Central High football star, will probably play halfback for the Antioch College eleven when it meets Heidelberg, November 2.

From the showing being made by the B. Division team, indications are that this eleven will be much stronger than the A. Division eleven that played during the first five weeks under Antioch's co-operative plan of study.

Hollencamp is in B division and is getting his first trial with the eleven now. The new squad averages over 160 pounds and three tackle men. Paul Schwartz, tackle, C. Woodridge, full back and Burns Weston, halfback, are letter men with the team. Slim Dawson of A Division will also be eligible with this squad.

Coach Earl Prugh will probably line the team up with Rose and Burnham or Dawson at the ends; Schwartz, Straubler and Stewart, tackles; Whitaker and Bratton or Reel, guards; Bostwick, center; Farley, quarterback; Hollencamp and Weston or Fier, halfbacks and Woodridge, fullback. After the Heidelberg game, Antioch will close its season with Cedarville at Cedarville in the second annual meeting between these schools.

NEW JASPER

Mr. Alpheus Anderson and nephew, Allen Fields, motored to Wapakoneta, Saturday, as the guests of relatives over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Huston of Belmont were guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Shirk.

Women to attract must Radiate Health!

BEAUTY is the magnet which draws all eyes—and back beauty—Health—working silently—red blood tingling through the veins—the glow of youth in the cheeks—the spring of eagerness, of vim, of vitality in the walk—the ever graceful air, unrestrained by care or worry—All the charms of beauty. All the works of health.

Men are fascinated by the charm of beauty. Women gaze with envy, secretly jealous, perhaps—wondering—hoping—praying for that attractiveness that is not theirs.

But why the wondering—the hoping—the praying for that coveted attractiveness—that beauty? Good looks is the barometer of one's condition. Good health radiates beauty. S. S. S. purifies the blood—creates new red blood cells—rids the system of impurities which make beauty an attractiveness impossible. As women to attract must radiate health so must they keep their systems free from impurities and their red blood cells ever increasing. S. S. S. does both.

S. S. S., since 1828, has been ridding the system of impurities—pimples, blackheads, boils, eczema and rheumatism—building red blood cells—aiding women to be attractive by radiating health. S. S. S. is made of carefully selected herbs and barks, scientifically prepared and proportioned. All good drug stores carry S. S. S. It is more economical to purchase the large size bottle.

CENTRAL HIGH ELEVEN WILL ATTEMPT TO DEDICATE COX FIELD WITH WIN FRIDAY

Can the Central High School football team continue to exercise its jinx over the Springfield High School eleven?

This question will be answered Friday afternoon at Cox Memorial Athletic Field, when the Springfield aggregation comes here.

For the last two seasons the Central High eleven has been walloping Springfield and making the Clark County bunch like it. Last year Captain Don Currie led his team to a 20 to 0 victory over the Springfielders in their own balliwick in the last game of the season. The year before, Xenia registered a 34 to 0 victory over Springfield at Gatch Field.

The game was booked this year with the greatest difficulty. Coach Oliver Matheny displaying the greatest reluctance in taking on the blue and white gridders again.

Springfield High did not lose a game this season until Stivers High of Dayton broke the spell with a 27 to 0 defeat last Saturday. Coach Matheny's outfit was crippled by the absence of Captain Al Dickson from the lineup and the peppy leader is expected to be back in the fray for the Xenia game. On the other hand, Coach "Puss" Burgess, who would rather beat Springfield than any team on the schedule, has been having touch luck with his gridiron combination.

Practically all green an inexperienced men, the team has been developing too slowly, and has taken four defeats in the beginning of the most disastrous season the school has faced for several years. Wilmington pried off the opener, the team dropped 2 games to West Milton and last week bowed to Greenville High. Injuries too have hurt the chances of the eleven, and an entirely different team will take the field for Friday's fray.

Art Currie, veteran backfield man, has taken the place on the bench vacated by Washburn, veteran flanker. Washburn has been out since the first game with a bad knee, but will be back in action Friday afternoon. Currie, on the other hand, injured his knee in the Greenville game and will probably not be able to play. For this reason, Coach Burgess has again been forced to shift quarterbacks.

Motoroff, who started the season at quarter, has been shifted to right guard, where he is serving to plug a weak line. With Currie on the bench, Holton, crack fullback, has been given the job of calling signals and is getting away with the new assignment in great shape. Zell and Captain Don Fuller both crack backfield men are now playing in top form at their positions. Arnold Boxwell got his gridiron baptism at Greenville last week and will probably be used at fullback Friday afternoon. The kid seems to be anxious to follow in the footsteps of his illustrious brother, Paul, and is said to be showing great form.

Doggett, a guard, was used up badly in the Greenville game and may be out of the contest here Friday. Leopold, Edwards and the Jordan brothers may be alternated at his position. Horner will play center no doubt, with Scurry and Keller at the tackles and Schwab and Washburn at the ends.

LISTEN! MOTHERS,

Are you tired out, rundown and simply have to drag yourself around? Are your little ones pale, delicate or lacking in strength and vigor? Unfortunately this is only too true in many homes of our city. To those who are weary and fagged out we bring a message of comfort. We have secured the agency for ORIGINAL VINOL—a splendid medicine for just such cases. Why? Because we have faith in it, because outside of mere business we believe we can do a great deal of good here in our city. We recommend ORIGINAL VINOL because we know what it contains—the formula is on every bottle—you know what you are taking. And to prove our faith we will cheerfully refund your money if you are not satisfied that ORIGINAL VINOL has helped you.

We believe that it will help bring health and strength to many tired mothers and fathers and to the little ones as well. We hope that this message will be of help to many families in our city.

Lad On Way West For Health Asks Work Here

Charitable organizations were appealed to Tuesday in behalf of Edward C. Salzer 18, of Rochester, N. Y., who was forced to seek shelter at Police Headquarters Monday because of illness while attempting to make his way to Arizona for the benefit of his lungs.

Salzer lost his right hand in an explosion in a government laboratory, he claims, the gasses from the explosion affecting his lungs, which causes him difficulty in breathing. In the hopes of restoring his health in the climate recommended in Arizona, the youth left Rochester in July on a Powercycle, camping along the way and keeping himself by working at his trade of sign painter.

A diary started in August shows he visited Ripley, N. Y., Jamestown, O., Cleveland, Wooster, Westerville and Loudenville, before arriving here. Tramps, he claims, held him up when he offered to share his meals with them one night, and stole his sign painting kit valued at $10, a rifle which had been presented to him by Rochester Boy Scouts and his knapsack containing all of his equipment. Later his motorcycle refused to work properly and he finally abandoned it in Loudenville, intending to make his way to Arizona, by automobile or freight train. Arriving here by train, the lad who claims he was a Boy Scout in Rochester until after he passed the age limit, sought shelter at police headquarters where he was still resting Wednesday. He says walking causes him shortness of breath. His family in Rochester is unable to help him, the lad avers.

The Rev. W. H. Thford, chairman of Greene County Chapter, American Red Cross, visited the youth in the city jail Tuesday morning. The boy seems aid other things assistance in getting a job. Although only having one hand, he says he will work as a mechanic. An effort to supply him with a

WORN NERVES

Nervous troubles, with backaches, dizzy spells, queer pains and irregular kidneys, give reason to suspect kidney weakness and to try the remedy that has helped your neighbors. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. Mary Mattox, 12 Leaman St., Xenia, says: "My kidneys became disordered and I suffered a great deal from pains in my back. My back seemed to throb and there was a steady ache across it just over my kidneys. My back was sore and lame and felt so knotted-up at times I could hardly move. Sharp pains shot through my back when I stooped over and I was dizzy and nervous as well as tired and worn out. My kidneys were irregular in action. My bladder became inflamed and my condition became serious. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly praised so I got some at Sayre & Hemphill's Drug Store. A few boxes did excellent work for me. The troubles left and I again knew what good health meant."

LAWYERS TO TALK ON CONSTITUTION TO HIGH SCHOOLS

Following the suggestions of the American Bar Association recommending lawyers to be active in giving out information upon the Constitution of the United States, members of the Greene County Bar Association will appear with brief talks or lectures on Constitutional topics before the various high schools of the county Thursday, November 1, at two o'clock.

These meetings will be open to the public and the speakers at the various points will be as follows: Osborn, J. K. Williamson; Alpha, M. D. Rice, Caesar Creek, H. D. Smith; Cedarville High School, Olin, Charles H. Kyle, Spring Valley, L. T. Marshall, Bellbrook, Judge J. C. Johnson; Bowersville, J. C. Finney; Yellow Springs, W. L. Auller; Jamestown, Hon. H. L. Smith; Clifton, Frank H. Dean.

The object of these talks will be to increase the knowledge in the practical operation of the National Constitution and to strengthen minds against hostile and revolutionary efforts aimed at its overthrow.

The Bar Association will also willingly assist any community gathering or any group wishing any discussion before them of these topics affecting the Constitution or any question of good citizenship.

Three Greene County Villages Seek Court Injunction Against Two Gas Companies

Charging that The Logan Gas Company has threatened to cut off its supply of gas to The Jantha Light and Fuel Company, a distributing company that furnishes gas to the villages of Yellow Springs, Osborn and Fairfield in Greene County and that these companies are acting in collusion for the apparent purpose of forcing a raise in gas rates, these villages filed suit in Common Pleas Court Wednesday morning naming the two companies and Edward Kagey, receiver of The Jantha Light and Fuel Company as defendants asking for a mandatory order requiring these companies to continue to furnish gas and a permanent injunction to prevent them carrying out their threat.

The suit was filed with Clerk of Courts Harvey Elam early Wednesday morning by City Solicitor J. A. Finney of this city, representing the village of Yellow Springs and by Morris D. Rice, attorney of Osborn representing Osborn and Fairfield. Similar suits were filed simultaneously in 14 cities and villages including, Eaton, West Alexander, Lewisburg, New Paris, Eldorado, West Manchester, Brookville, Greenville and others, the suits being filed in the Common Pleas Courts of Montgomery, Darke, Preble and Greene Counties.

The Jantha Light and Fuel Company was granted a franchise some time ago to furnish gas in each of these Greene County villages at a certain rate, which was increased in 1920, operating under the contract with The Logan Gas Company, which contract is said to expire October 31, at which time The Logan Company threatens to cut off its supply of gas, from The Jantha Company, forcing that company to discontinue its service to these villages.

The petition filed here asserts The Logan Company has sufficient gas to furnish The Jantha Company and all the consumers of that company, and is now furnishing gas to the city of Richmond, Ind., and other cities in that state obtaining the supply from fields in Ohio and West Virginia. The petition alleges The Logan Company is a common carrier and subject to all the duties and liabilities of such carriers under the laws of the state, and is operating under a franchise through Greene County granted by the county commissioners.

The plaintiffs declare the Logan Company has not applied to the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio for permission to cut off its supply of gas to The Jantha Company. The petition alleges that in 1920, the Logan Company asked the Utilities Commission for permission to cut off the supply of gas furnished to The Jantha Company declaring to the latter company had not paid certain bills, and that the Utilities Commission took jurisdiction of the controversy, hearing the evidence, but that the matter is still pending no decision ever having been determined.

On this declaration the plaintiffs aver the Jantha Company is a subordinate company of The Logan Company and that each received higher rates in 1920 following the controversy. The plaintiffs thus declare the present threat is by collusion between the two companies for the apparent purpose of getting a raise in rates. The petition declares further that The Logan Gas Company is successor to The Logan Natural Gas and Fuel Company, which was granted a franchise to lay pipe lines in Greene County May 17, 1913 with the stipulation that it should furnish gas to the villages of Fairfield, Osborn and Yellow Springs, said franchise being still in force.

Copies of the franchise, which does not expire until 1938, are attached to the petition. The plaintiffs declare they have always paid for the gas at the rate asked and are willing to pay for the gas consumed according to the rates established by the Public Utilities Commission, and that if the supply is cut off these villages will be left without adequate fuel for the winter entailing great hardships, suffering and expense.

The petition asks that the injunction asked for be in effect until the Public Utilities Commission gives permission to cut off the gas and that the companies be compelled to furnish gas to the villages named until such a time.

A temporary restraining order was allowed in Common Pleas Court Wednesday morning by Judge R. L. Gowdy, insuring that the supply will not be cut off October 31 or pending a hearing.

How to Make Pine Cough Syrup at Home

Has no equal for prompt results. Takes but a moment to prepare, and saves you about $2.

Pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup. To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and tastes very pleasant. You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs. Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

A WIFE'S STORY

By Jane Phelps

Synopsis of Preceding Chapters

Ruby Atkins marries Paul Norwood, a man of little strength of character, who has dissipated a fortune. Born to money he cannot get along without it. She is very unsuspecting, loves him dearly, and practically supports herself and two daughters (Joan and Laura) for the five years he is in France. Dave Logan, a man of bad reputation, becomes a friend of the family.

Norwood returns and the family's finances improve, so gradually that no suspicion is aroused in Ruby's mind. Paul buys a house on the Sound and takes many short trips, never telling where he is going. Logan makes love to Ruby who sends him away. Joan, wilful and inclined to be wild, entertains; Ruby overhears Clem Sanders say of her that he would never marry a girl who drank and whose father was a bootlegger. Ruby does not believe until Revenue Agents visit the house and she is convinced. Unknown to her mother, Joan has overheard Sanders' remark also. She goes out on the water and is brought home by two men.

WILFUL JOAN FINDS PEACE AT LAST

Chapter LXI
"What is it? What has happened?" I cried, rushing toward them, followed by Laura. "Bring her in. Oh, she has fallen in the water!" I almost screamed as I saw her dripping form. "She is dead—drowned," one of the men said in a husky voice. "Oh, no! No!" I cried. "Lay her down quickly. Call a doctor, Laura. She can't be dead. She can't be." But even as I cried the words I knew she was gone, my lovely Joan. I opened her waist. I applied all the first aid helps I could think of, but of no avail. The doctor came. "She isn't dead. She has fainted, is unconscious. Hurry and save her—" I clutched his coat. "It's too late," he said. "She is beyond help. She has been for some time."

I knew no more.

When I recovered from my long faint, Laura was bending over me, the doctor at her side.

"What is it? What has happened?" I asked, struggling to rise. Then it all came to me—the two men, my beautiful drowned Joan—and with a cry I ran to her.

It is impossible to tell of my anguish as I gazed on her lovely face, her motionless form. I felt the world rocking about me, and fell on my knees beside my darling girl, praying, weeping wildly. Laura's arms were about me, her tears mingled with mine.

The doctor, an elderly man, attended to all the harrowing details for us, insofar as he could. After a time he asked:

"Where can I get in touch with Mr. Norwood?"

"Oh, I can't tell you. I don't know! He is in Canada somewhere."

I replied. Not once had I thought of Paul, but now the thought of our loneliness added poignancy to my grief.

In the living room by my beautiful daughter. The doctor, the coroner, had gone. Laura and I were alone with our dead.

I had asked no questions, but Laura told me the two men had seen the boat floating and thought it was I. I came unfastened from its moorings and rowing out had found Joan, drowned.

Alone, we kept our vigil by her, lovelier in death than she had been in life. A peaceful look on her face. She had not suffered.

All night we never left her, but when morning came, Laura insisted that I bathe and change.

"Do, Mother dear. We will have to keep up, and it will freshen you."

Blindly I obeyed.

After I had finished my toilet I went into the room the girls had so long occupied together, the room I had tried to make beautiful for Joan. I stood before her dressing table, idly moving the toilet articles she never would use again. Under the mirror I found a sealed envelope addressed to me.

With trembling hands I opened it, a sudden premonition turning me cold with dread. With eyes blurred by tears I read:

"Forgive me, Mother. But I couldn't stand it any longer. I heard what Clem said about me that day in the summer house—that he would not marry a girl who drank, and whose father was a bootlegger. Poor Mother, I have added to your sorrows but I know it is for the best. I am what I am, and perhaps my going will make Dad see what he is doing to you and Laura. I love him. Love you all. Goodbye. Joan."

It had not been an accident! Joan had deliberately drowned herself. My little Joan.

No one must suspect it, not even Laura. This thought came to me after a time. I would shield Joan's name and save her young sister from the knowledge that she had taken her own life. But now to my own sorrow was added the thought that perhaps I could have saved her. If I had talked to her of Clem, if I could have gained her confidence about his cruel speech, I might have given her courage to go on. "Oh, why haven't I been a better mother?" I moaned as I carefully hid the pitiful little note, and returned to lieve Laura.

"Mother, what is it? You look so terribly. Oh, Mother!" and with a pitiful cry, Laura flung herself in my arms. "I'll try to make up to you. Poor Mother—poor Joan."

I tenderly withdrew from the clinging arms, and as quietly as I could, insisted that Laura go and rest. I must be brave for her sake, must try not to show the shock the knowledge that Joan had taken her own life had been.

WARFARE IN GERMANY CONTINUES

WALTON OUSTED; WILL FIGHT

IMPEACHED ON 22 COUNTS BY LOWER HOUSE

Oklahoma Governor Will Hold to Belief That Action Illegal.

SUSPENDS EXECUTIVE

Senate Follows Up Action of Other Branch—Walton at His Office

BULLETIN

Oklahoma City, Oct. 24.—Lieutenant Governor Trapp today was restrained from acting as Governor.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 24.—Although suspended from the governorship of Oklahoma by action of the Oklahoma Senate, following impeachment last night on two of 22 counts by the House of Representatives, John Callaway Walton came to his office at the capitol as usual today.

Lieutenant Governor Martin Edward Trapp, who has been a figure in Oklahoma politics since 1914, serving three four-year terms as lieutenant governor prior to the present term, was acting governor today pending the Senate trial in which Governor Walton's further political life is at stake.

"I shall observe the law," was the only statement Lieutenant Governor Trapp would make today. However, he said he expected to have a formal statement ready some time today.

Governor Walton had nothing to say. It is understood, however, in defense counsel circles, that a general demurrer to all charges will be made on the ground the impeachment session is illegal because Governor Walton called the extraordinary session to enact legislation against the Ku Klux Klan.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 24.—Governor J. C. Walton was indicted on two articles of impeachment preferred before the house of representatives and was suspended from office by the senate. Lieutenant Governor M. E. Trapp now is Oklahoma's chief executive.

Only a few minutes elapsed between the governor's indictment on one count and his removal from authority.

Notified of the house's verdict, upon the first charge, the upper branch of the assembly immediately adopted, by a vote of 38 to 1, a resolution declaring that filing of the article "automatically suspends J. C. Walton as governor and the office with its duties and compensations devolves upon the lieutenant governor."

Walton refused to make any comment whatsoever. Trapp was in Sapulpa and was notified quickly of the action by both bodies. While the senate was stripping Walton of executive power the house was voting his impeachment on a second article, the decision being transmitted forthwith to the senate chamber that it might be included in the bill of particulars.

Today the senate was resolved into a court of impeachment by Chief Justice J. T. Johnson of the state supreme court and proceeded immediately upon trial of the charges submitted to it by the house board of managers, who were appointed by Speaker W. D. McBeck. Six days will be allowed defendant and prosecutor to prepare for trial.

The impeached governor's friends predict that Walton will commence his fight at once to retain office. He is expected to issue a pardon. Secretary of State Sneed will refuse to attest it. The beneficiary will, therefore, swear out a writ of habeas corpus in the criminal court of appeals. The senate's suspension power will be put to the test, but the members contend that the senate ranks even the supreme court and its judicial acts are supreme and final.

Governor Walton was impeached, first, upon a charge of felonious diversion of health department funds for the purpose of paying his private chauffeur's salary of $200 a month. It was sustained without debate by a vote of 80 yeas to 17 nays. The second article alleged violation of the state constitution in preventing assembling and functioning of a legally called grand jury in Oklahoma county by the exercise of military power. The vote was 75 yeas against 23 nays. Twenty additional articles remain to be determined.

Alton Covell, Arthur Covell & Murder Chart.

Arthur Covell, 46, a cripple, is under arrest in Mansfield, Ore., after having confessed, the police assert, that he planned the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Elba Covell. While the actual murder was committed by Mrs. Covell's 16-year-old stepson, Alton, Arthur Covell acknowledges he planned the death and used this astrological chart to hoodwink the boy into believing the stars had ordered the crime committed. Covell, an astrologer and mystic, is well educated. Evidence in the hands of police indicates that he planned many other crimes. The "death sign" is shown at the bottom of the chart he used in pursuing the boy to murder his stepmother.

Washington, Oct. 24.—The senatorial investigation of the United States Veterans Bureau was directed today to the slaying of "red tape" from the care of America's disabled war veterans.

By summoning members of the bureau's legal department to the witness stand, the Senate investigating committee sought to determine a remedy for protracted delays in the award of compensation, the payment of soldier claims and the hospitalization of wounded veterans. The legal department, where most of the bureau's business was delayed by legal technicalities, has been blamed for throwing a wall of "red tape" around the care of disabled veterans.

Evidence of graft in the treatment of veterans, already unearthed by the investigation has prompted the committee to take steps toward the recovery of money illegally expended. The first step was to interrogate the bureau's law forces on what efforts were made to recover hundreds of dollars paid out either to soldiers on illegal claims for compensation or to professional men for services never rendered the war wounded.

STORM OFF ATLANTIC COAST HAS SUBSIDED

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 24.—The great northeast storm, which has prevailed along the Virginia coast for the last two days blew itself out during the night and today a checkup shows that no great amount of damage has been done.

The lights at Cape Charles, swept to sea, after she had broken from her moorings, later was towed into the buoy-ward at Portsmouth by the cutter Manning. She will be back at her station when the heavy seas subside. No further confirmation of the reported distress of the British steamer West Moreland has been reported at coast guard headquarters here. The Danish steamer Phoenix, reaching Newport News reported picking up "sos" calls, purporting to have come from the West Moreland, giving her position as 180 miles east of Cape Henry. The cutter Kickapoo, in the vicinity, found no traces of her nor could she establish wireless communication with the British steamer.

The police patrol boat has been notified to maintain a watch for the fishing boat Mable H. of Widdow, N. J., adrift in the Chesapeake and probably being carried out to sea. There are six men aboard.

New York, Oct. 24.—While three persons are dead and more than a score injured with great destruction of property, as a result of the gale raging between Maine and Florida, the comforting assurance came today that the drought through out the Atlantic states is broken.

HARVEY DECLARES IT'S UP TO EUROPE; U. S. IS PREPARED

Washington, Oct. 24.—Colonel George Harvey spoke with the entire approval of President Coolidge and Secretary of State Hughes when he informed the world last night in his farewell speech in London that the United States is willing to help Europe settle her troubles if Europe wishes it.

London, Oct. 24.—The United States government is still prepared to participate in a European conference to fix the amount of German reparations to avert economic disaster.

This message was delivered by Ambassador George Harvey at a farewell banquet given him by the Pilgrims society.

"A year ago it was apparently the universal opinion in Europe that the crux of the settlement lay in the determination of the amount of reparations Germany could really pay. America came to the door of Europe and, lo and behold, the door was closed. The United States was not wanted. What could any self-respecting nation do? The United States went home.

"Conditions on the continent have changed somewhat during the last 11 months, but there is no material difference in the fundamental situation. Under President Coolidge, as under President Harding, the United States stands quite ready to help in any practicable way to promote the recuperation and reestablishment of economic stability throughout the world. We are willing to come in as soon as we are asked, but surely we can not be expected to smash in the door."

UPHOLD CRABBE ACT IN COURT RULING

Columbus, Oct. 24.—The Crabbe prohibition act and the city ordinance conforming to it were upheld by the supreme court in ruling on an appeal made by Charles White from his conviction of violating a Findlay ordinance against liquor.

White was guilty of illegal possession under the ordinance, which is identical with the Crabbe act. His conviction was affirmed by the court of appeals. He then went to the supreme court, claiming the Crabbe act and the ordinance to be unconstitutional because of an alleged discrimination—immunity existing in the act in favor of occupants or owners of bona fide private dwellings, under which it is lawful for such occupant or owner to possess or give away intoxicants. He claimed this angle of the act gives immunity to the fortunate for an action which is a crime for the homeless.

Elias H. Mortimer, Washington representative of a St. Louis contracting firm, testified that Colonel Forbes had given him "advance information" concerning the cities for building veterans hospitals and that in return for this he "loaned" Forbes $5,000, which has never been paid back. Mortimer said he got the money from his employers and gave it to Forbes in the bathroom of a room in a Chicago hotel.

J. F. HALE AWARDED DAYTON CITY JOB

John Flotron Hale, of Dayton, formerly in engineering work here for the city of Xenia, has been made city engineer of Dayton to succeed Ivan E. Houk, resigned, and will assume his duties November 1 at a salary of $3,000 a year.

Mr. Hale was employed in the engineer's office, Dayton, several years ago, and was later connected with the private engineering firm of Smith and Foster, with which concern he was located in Xenia for some time assisting in the engineering work incident to local street paving.

Later Mr. Hale was division superintendent of the State Highway Department in charge of the southern division of the state, and when the administration changed he became connected with J. I. Geiger, Dayton contractor.

The largest thank offering ever given by the Xenia Presbytery, amounting to over $3,000, was reported for the year, at the forty-fifth annual meeting of the Xenia Presbyterial Missionary Societies of the United Presbyterian Church, held at Clifton, last Thursday according to officers of the society.

Another interesting report given at the meeting was that of Mrs. George Moore, editor of the Missionary Magazine who received 116 subscriptions to the Magazine during the year.

The work of the missions in India, was given by Miss E. Josephine Martin, Mrs. T. J. Finney, the "mother" of the missionaries in Egypt led the quiet hour. Mrs. O. H. Milligan, General Thank offering secretary, told of the work of the Women's Board and also gave a Thank-offering address.

CHILD SHOT

Dayton, O., Oct. 24.—Mary Jane Evans, 4-year-old daughter of Gilbert Evans, negro, was shot and probably fatally wounded by her brother, Gilbert, aged 6, in a bedroom of the Evans home, the bullet striking the child in the breast and passing through her body.

RAIL DEAL RUMORED

Chillicothe, O., Oct. 24.—It is reported here that Columbus and Cleveland interests may purchase the Chillicothe street railway lines. One local official denied negotiations were being conducted, but admitted the property was being "looked over."

INFANT BURNED TO DEATH

Gallipolis, O., Oct. 24.—The year-old daughter of Mr. Root, Hocking Valley telegraph operator, was burned to death here when the home burned to the ground. Mr. Root was seriously burned when he attempted to save his daughter.

PLANS BURNS

Mt. Vernon, O., Oct. 24.—Fire in the plant of the MacGee-Starr Granite company here completely destroyed the plant and caused damage estimated at between $40,000 and $50,000. Defective wiring was thought to have caused the blaze.

THREE KILLED AT CROSSING

Ashtabula, O., Oct. 24.—Three persons were killed when a New York Central freight train struck an automobile at a crossing here. The dead: Mr. and Mrs. Emil Aho and son, Olavi, 5.

SCHOOL FOR CARPENTERS

Cleveland, Oct. 24.—A trade school for carpenter apprentices in the public schools is to be started at once. This school will be governed co-operatively by the school board, the local carpenters' unions and carpenter contractors.

MEXICO SEEKS LOAN

Mexico City, Oct. 24.—The Mexican government is arranging the terms of a loan with New York financiers for $25,000,000 American gold. Graham Ashmeals, representing Thomas W. Amont, New York banker, is carrying on the negotiations.

SLIGHT ABATEMENT IN VIOLENCE SEEN; SCORE DEAD; HUNDREDS HURT

Reds, Driven From Hamburg Entrench Themselves In Suburbs—Reaction Against Secessionists Movement Occurs.

There was a slight abatement of violence in Germany today, although warfare still continued. From 20 to 35 persons were killed in disorders and fights. Hundreds were wounded.

The Reds, driven from Hamburg entrenched themselves in the suburbs and stubbornly resolved to give further battle.

Naval airplanes are protecting the Hamburg harbor.

Reaction against the Secessionist movement has developed in the Rhineland. Ten Separatists were beaten to death at Asachen (Aix La Chapelle) and the Separatist mayor of Muenchen-Gladbach was murdered. Information from official sources indicated that Bavaria is now the only German state not adhering to the reich. All the rest have promised loyalty.

Five hundred arrests have been made at Hamburg, where martial law was proclaimed.

Saxony is quiet under the iron rule of the federal military authorities.

Separatists are active in Pomerania and Mecklenburg, but no violence has been reported.

Berlin, Oct. 24.—The Rhinish palatinate—(district lying between Baden and Rhinish Prussia) declared in favor of autonomy today. It is understood that the proclamation was not issued until after the separatist leaders conferred with the French military authorities.

A Reichswehr unit, composed of the famous Fifteenth division of Hussars was ordered to Wandsbeck, three miles from Hamburg, to be ready to aid the police in the event Red aggressions increased.

Reports from Hamburg shortly after noon stated that the communists were building a line of trenches through the suburbs of Schiffbeck. Up to that time, the sailors landed at Hamburg from a warship had not been employed but were being held in readiness for service.

International News Service learned from an authoritative source, that many officers of the reichswehr in Bavaria are siding with the Berlin government and need only an order to prove their loyalty to the Reich.

Reichswehr troops were ordered to intervene at Hamburg. Up until today, police had been used against the Reds in that city.

Fighting was still in progress at Hamburg this morning. Police were using hand grenades to dislodge the communists from their positions. Secessionists have become more active in Pomerania and Mecklenburg. Severe fighting was reported from Aachen.

G. O. P. LEADERS TO HELP COOLIDGE

Washington, Oct. 24.—Money magnates and Republican leaders lunched with President Coolidge and afterwards conferred with him at length. While there was no official announcement following the meeting, it is understood to have had these outstanding objects: To assure the president that the old guard in the organization has taken as a foregone conclusion that he has to be the standard-bearer in 1924, and that they are banking on him, and to assure ample finances for his campaign and for the party, with him at the helm.

The president's guests were: John T. Adams, chairman of Republican national committee; Fred W. Upham, treasurer; C. H. Huston, chairman of ways and means committee; former Governor Sproul, Pennsylvania; E. T. Stotesbury, Philadelphia; W. R. Wrigley, Chicago; James H. Stanley, Denver, and Frank Stearns, Boston.

Incidental matters, such as the city to be favored with the next national convention, were discussed. Chicago is making the usual determined effort to secure the gathering, with Denver as the principal contender, it was stated.

At that time charges were made directly to Colonel Forbes that the purchase of the property was surrounded by graft; that the plans for the hospital were such as to excite suspicion and that the circumstances surrounding the open cultivation of the farm crop on the Livermore site were such as to lead the American Legion to believe that Colonel Forbes was participating in or openly winking at the corrupt transaction.

"At that time Director Forbes made no denial of any of the allegations made to him by the American Legion, and his whole justification seemed to be that as long as the property had been acquired and was suited to the purpose of a tubercular hospital, it was no concern of the American Legion what was paid for the property or how the money was disposed of.

"From that time on the matter was subject to suspicion, and on March 1 charges were placed in the hands of Brigadier General Sawyer in Washington. The matter was also called to the attention of Director Hines upon his resuming office."

The report also dealt with the alleged activities of Matthew O'Brien, a San Francisco architect, who appeared in Washington with political endorsements for his employment. Charles Stratton, chief designer of the construction division of the bureau, testified that O'Brien was introduced to him by Forbes, who stated he had employed O'Brien to prepare plans for a tubercular hospital to be built on the Livermore site. O'Brien was furnished a set of standard plans, and later came back with a set of drawings which Stratton characterized as "very poorly executed." O'Brien, Stratton testified, received $64,000 for these plans, which were never used.

General Pershing left for a three months' visit in France. He is accompanied on the trip by his sister, Mrs. D. M. Butler.

MAKE SENSATIONAL CHARGES IN PROBE OF VET BUREAU

Washington, Oct. 24.—The implication that Colonel Charles R. Forbes, former director of the veterans' bureau, had "participated in" or "winked at" corrupt practices in connection with the veterans' bureau tuberculosis hospital site near Livermore, Cal., was read into the record of the senate investigation of the bureau by Major General John O'Ryan, counsel for the committee conducting the inquiry.

W. C. T. U WORKERS TOLD OF CAMPAIGN AGAINST CIGARETTE

Sixty-five workers of the W. C. T. U. in Greene County, attended the "red letter" meeting held at the home of Mrs. W. O. Custis, on South Detroit Street, Tuesday evening, honoring Miss Mary Wilgus, who is leaving soon for India, where she will be a companion to Miss Mary J. Campbell, W. C. T. U. worker, there.

The program of the evening opened with devotions by Mrs. A. M. Tonkinson, followed by a song, "The Nation's Going Dry." An instrumental selection was given by Miss Mamie Burrell with the saxophone and Mrs. Harold Whitt, at the piano.

The outstanding address of the evening was given by Mrs. Carrie L. Flatter, county president of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Flatter spoke of the work that had been accomplished along the lines of the harmful effects of narcotics. She said in part, "As we have outlawed all these narcotics except nicotine, our work now is to see that men are elected who will enforce these laws and to secure the protection of the childhood of our state and nation by outlawing the cigarette."

"We are glad to tell you that an open campaign is now on to secure a law prohibiting the manufacture, sale, advertisement or use of the cigarette in Ohio, and eventually in the nation. A campaign committee is now being organized to aid the campaign and all who want to help accomplish this great undertaking should at once confer with the headquarters office or the County President, for details of the work."

Mrs. Flatter's talk was followed by a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross" by Mrs. Raymond Wolf, accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Tilford.

Miss Mary B. Ervin, world and national leader in the L. T. L. work, told of her recent trip through Iowa, Illinois and Indiana, and the advancement of the work in those states. She extended greetings to Miss Campbell, through Miss Wilgus.

"The Swing" a clever reading was given by little Miss Doris Watkins. Mrs. Austin Black, who had charge of the large list of magazines and books sent by the W. C. T. U. to the Ohio Penitentiary last week, reported that 23 books, and 1130 pounds of magazines had been sent. Another large quantity will be sent soon.

Mrs. George Moore introduced Miss Josephine Martin, a missionary to India, who is in this country on furlough, who told of the conditions in that country. Miss Wilgus, the honor guest told of her plans in India. The members wished her "bon voyage" on her trip. The program closed with an instrument.

TIME TO FACE THE FACTS

"So much has been said against the use of patent medicines that I have had a strong prejudice against them. But after four years doctoring with six different doctors, without results, for acute indigestion, gastritis, constipation, appendicitis and other ailments I was said to possess. I was encouraged to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, seeing what it had done for a friend similarly afflicted. I also was entirely relieved of my trouble, and am sure this medicine will do all and more than is claimed for it. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded."

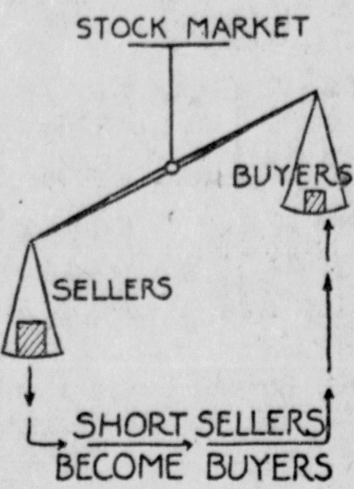

Sayre and Hemphill and Druggists everywhere.

tal selection by Miss Imogene Dean, and Miss Emily Le Mar. A social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Custis was assisted by Mrs. Frank Fristoe, Mrs. George Fuller, Mrs. J. D. Hapner, and Mrs. Douglas Custis.

MONEY AT WORK

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds and Investments

Short selling is an advantage to the community because it stabilizes prices.

The short seller goes against the crowd. He prevents crowd contagion from first wildly shooting prices sky high and then just as swiftly dropping them down again. The public buys in streaks; everybody wants to buy or sell, as the case may be, at the time when everyone else is doing it.

The short seller watches prices closely. When he believes a wave of buying has forced prices too high he sells. This tends to keep prices from going higher.

Finally the public all tries to sell at once which puts prices down again. When they get down to the point where the short seller thinks they are low enough, he buys in his stock to cover his short sale. This buying prevents a collapse of prices at the same time it makes money for the bear.

ASPIRIN

Say "Bayer"—Genuine!

Genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" have been prescribed by physicians over twenty-three years and proved safe by millions for Colds and grippe misery. Handy boxes of twelve tablets cost only few cents at any drugstore. Each package contains proper directions for Colds and tells how to prepare an Aspirin gargle for sore throat and tonsillitis.

BANDITS ESCAPE WITH DIAMONDS WORTH $50,000

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 24—Working under the cloak of the heaviest fog in recent history of Kansas City four bandits entered a jewelry store here early today and escaped with diamonds valued at $50,000.

Two clerks were forced to open the safe containing the gems at the point of revolvers and were then lined up against a wall while bandits ransacked the vault.

Max Binkowitz, a clerk, was struck on the head with a revolver when he did not comply promptly with the bandits' orders.

ARRESTED IN COLUMBUS

Probation Officer J. E. Watts went to Cincinnati Tuesday where he arrested Orlas Suttles, wanted here on a non-support charge. He will be arraigned before Judge J. C. Marshall on the charge.

Return to Tokio. N.Y.L.

NEW BURLINGTON

A number from here attended the Ministerial conference held at the M. E. Church at Martinsville last week. Stanley Stephens and family spent the week end at Wilmington. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Carr and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bayless and family near Cuba.

Kent Holland and family of Xenia, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frazier of near Mamisburg spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore.

A long and seemingly unending line of refugees is pouring back into devastated Tokio to rebuild their wrecked homes and seek to ascertain if any of their belongings were spared in the earthquake and subsequent fire.

"A COMMON COLD DESERVES YOUR PROMPT ATTENTION"

Take Father John's
Medicine

"A common cold deserves your immediate and serious attention"—So writes a well-known physician, in pointing out the danger of neglecting a cold. "Early treatment of a cold will spare you days of suffering and danger," he says. Doctors will tell you that colds are very likely to develop into serious and even fatal diseases if they are neglected. Many doctors prescribe Father John's Medicine because they know it has had over 68 years of success for colds and coughs. It builds new strength to throw off the cold and prevents its development into more serious trouble. No drugs—all pure food.

UNDAY SCHOOL PARTY

KYLE HOME TUESDAY

Over fifty members of Judge C. H. Kyle's Sunday School Class of Second United Presbyterian Church, enjoyed a Halloween party at the Kyle home on West Third Street Tuesday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Leon McClellan, members of the class who will spend the winter in the south. Members of the committee in charge of the program appeared in masked costume. The program of the evening consisted of a piano solo by Miss Margaret Moorehead, a reading by Mrs. C. P. Proudfoot, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Graham Bryson. Games and contests were amusing features. The refreshment course carried out the Halloween idea, evident in the decorations of the Kyle home. The evening closed with the recitation of the 100th psalm, and prayer by the Rev. C. P. Proudfoot. Mrs. E. S. Foust, president of the class, while Mrs. David Bryson, and Mrs. Leigh Taylor were members of the program committee.

GIVEN SURPRISE MONDAY EVENING

Robert and Edwin Watkins of the Union neighborhood were given a pleasant surprise Monday evening by two Sunday school classes of Union Church and a few other friends. The guests spent a pleasant evening with games and music. Later in the evening wieners were roasted in the old-fashioned fire place.

Those who took part in the evening's activities were the Misses Louise Ledbetter, Myrtle Core, Ruth and Helen Grant, Carrie Williamson, Mildred Ragar, Mary Sanders, Edith McDonald, Lucile Anderson, Anna Elison, Mary Mansfield, Freda Laurens, Charibel Watnrou, Fred Shoemaker, Harold and Raymond Sanders, Dean Moore, Clarence Hopping, Thomas Conklin, Kenneth Ragar, Russell Fudge, Herbert Wheeler, Harold Elison, Julius King, Kenneth Ledbetter, Paul McDonald, Charles Keiter, Charles Sanders, Robert and Edwin Watkins and the Sunday School teachers Mr. and Mrs. Heman Davies.

STORE EMPLOYEES ARRANGE SURPRISE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rakestraw, on Maple Street, was the scene of a gay revelry, Tuesday night, when about forty guests, employees of the Hutchinson & Gibney Co., and their families, staged a complete surprise on Mr. Rakestraw on the occasion of his birthday.

Many of the guests attended the affair masked, which added to the amusing features of the evening. Games, music, and contests were enjoyed, followed by a refreshment course of sandwiches, pickles, coffee, ice cream and cake. Mrs. Zana Buttz and Mr. T. E. Craig won the prizes in the floral contest.

SPRING HILL SOCIAL

Members of the Spring Hill Parent-Teacher Association are planning for a Halloween social, at the school, Friday evening. The public and patrons of the school are invited to attend. Many novelty features will be furnished for amusement.

Mr. John J. Guilday, of Norwood, Ohio, former Xenian, was a visitor in Xenia, Wednesday.

DRINK WATER TO HELP WASH OUT KIDNEY POISON

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Begin Taking Salts

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

WHEN CAN A MAN "READ AND WRITE ENGLISH"?

The Man From Over There.

The question is a grave one in New York where a recent constitutional amendment makes literacy to this extent a qualification for voters who wish to cast their ballot or the first time. It is sufficient to be able to scrawl the words on the first page of a grammar-school primer—"I have a dog—mamma, see my dog—my dog can see me"—and having written them read them aloud to the judge of elections? Or must a fledgling voter spell thro a sonorous paragraph from the Declaration of Independence and write an essay on the New York election laws? The cas has gone to New York's court of final resot carried there by the State Attorney General

SECRETAY OF STATE

Hughes said relations between the United States and its sister republics to the south were never more "satisfactory or carried better promise of mutual good will" speaking at the Columbus day conference of the Pan-American International Women's committee "I say this" he said, "after taking into account the complaining utterances that find place from time to time in the press and the criticism of those mentors, publicist who supply the tanz which gives relish to our intellectua repasts. The millenium itself would turn out to be a tame affair, if no fault could be found with it". Mr. Hughes said he was happy "to say that there are no controversies with any of our sister republics which have noe been settled or are not in process of adjustment." He called attention to the resumption of diplomatic relations with Mexico, the establishment recently of "an accord with Columbia" and added: "We are entering upon a period in our relations with Latin-American states notable for the absence of serious grievances." The Secretary referred also to the aid the American government had been able to give to "the promotion of peace and stability among the countries of Latin-America," pointing to the arbitration agreement between Chile and Peru worked out in Washington, to the conference of Central American republics and to the plans for withdrawal of American military forces from Santo Domingo.

WESTERN PROSPERITY

Senator Smoot, the efficient rational legislator of Utah, has returned to Washington after spending several weeks in the western states.

"The West has a renewed and strengthened appreciation of the Republican national administration. The people have confidence in President Coolidge, just as they had faith in President Harding. The west likes Coolidge and is giving his administration every encouragement and support," commented the western Senator.

Senator Smoot is optimistic about the improved business situation in western states. He has noted market improvement in industrial and agricultural conditions.

"Really, it looks like old times would soon be with us," commented Senator Smoot. "Industrial activities in the West is increasing its speed. The economic condition of the farmer of Rocky mountain state is considerably improved and should constantly grow better. Farmers are getting $8 a ton and beter for sugar beets and there is a demand for all they can produce. They are getting $1.50 a bushel for potatoes. The stock raisers and especially the sheep raisers are doing well. The latter are getting a splendid price for wool and lambs. Our metal mines are all beginning to work again. Apple and peach crops are fine this year. The railroads are able to move the crops, the car situation being much better than last year.

"If there is another war, and Europe is immensely fearsome that there will be, we will be in it. The world is so bound and knit up together now that our participation is unavoidable. We need to be in an association so we may enter at our own terms if for no other reason. With the U. S. the league is nothing. It is a machinery of negotiation and if we were in it now we could prevent another war. Another war, I am convinced positively will be the end of civilization."—Fred E. Lumley, professor of sociology, Ohio State University.

"Where at one time only elderly men were trusted with the business of larger firms, one can now find bright, ambitious youngsters in their places because they have gained an early knowledge of business in schools."—F. F. Jordan, professor of economics, University of Cincinnati.

"We (Spain) are only pawns on the Mediterranean chessboard. We are reduced to the role of shock absorbers between England and France, English domination of the straits is vital to the British empire and England will support us for the simple reason that she cannot afford to have too strong or aggressive a neighbor in Gibraltar. She is checking France today and as she has always checked powers which she considered a menace to the Empire"—Count Romanones former Spanish Ambassador to France.

Marion, O., Oct. 24.—Charles B. Orwig died here from self-inflicted bullet wounds. Orwig, a candidate for state treasurer in 1920, shot himself through the head while seated in his automobile near Marion. Despondency over ill health resulting from loss of a leg by a shell explosion during the world war is given as the motive for the act.

CASE OF TYPHUS FOUND

Columbus, Oct. 24.—Mrs. Barnabas Vass, East Columbus, is suffering from typhus fever, health officials announced. It is the first typhus case in the history of this city and one of very few ever reported in Ohio. The Vass home has been quarantined. The disease is highly contagious, the mortality rate ranging from 10 to 50 per cent.

Today's Talk

AN OPEN LETTER TO MISS NOBODY

You say you cannot get interested in anything, no matter how fine it may be, and you are puzzled whether to keep your faith in the finer things and learn to climb out of the "lacks" or to take up with the light things of life and "let it go at that."

I am past 19 years of age, and have felt all that you have written to me, so I think that I may be able to give you suggestion or so that will help you.

In the first place, at 19 we usually see "as through a glass, darkly." At 19 life looked very dark and puzzling to me. It usually does at that age. Much of it still looks puzzling and I am a "little over twice that age now. But as we grow in years, we find that automatically compensations come to fill up the gaps of disappointment and loss.

But do not trade faith for a pot of frothy fun. Keep your mind and body and spirit clean and wholesome. The clean machine always runs smoothest and best and longest.

Learn to overlook. See the good in those about you whom you love. The world is full of interests. Get as many of them as possible and tie to them.

The road to happiness is found only as you lead others to that road. My favorite line still this: "He climbs highest who helps another up." Forget your own unhappiness and hunt out someone else who is unhappy and study out some way to make them happy.

Don't pity yourself. No one is worth that. But much more! Love life. Be glad that you have a chance at life. There is beauty everywhere if you will just open your eyes and see. At night you have the stars and the great heavens with their mystery and beauty; and during the day the trees, the birds and the moving of a great world right past your front door. Study books. Get the stories of those who have found life good and rich. Hold to that "heart's desire," my friend, and let nothing move you from its path. Be brave. Brush away the tears. Lift up your chin. Always be "just a little hopeful." Never give up. Success is sure to smile upon you, if you keep up a smile toward success.

And never forget that you are SOMEBODY. None of us is "nobody," unless we become that way through choice. And you want.

Health Hints

BERNARD MACFADDEN

Of all the involuntary muscles the finest samples are those found in the heart, that organ which never ceases work for an instant while life lasts. Other involuntary muscles are those of the lungs, which carry on the work of respiration even when we are asleep. So, too, do the stomach, the liver and kidneys, the intestines and all of the other vital organs perform their various tasks through the constant contractions of their involuntary muscles. Thus the churning of the stomach brings about the performance of digestion. The involuntary muscles of the intestines force the contents along. The blood vessels and the lymphatics perform their offices by the aid of involuntary muscles.

Whether or not the involuntary muscles can be made, by direct effort of the will, to take on some of the voluntary characteristics is a question that cannot be decided with finality. It is not to be thought that the involuntary muscles can act wholly independent of the control of the nervous system. In fact, it is well known that the possessor of a finely organized nervous system will have healthier involuntary muscles, and this would seem to indicate complete nervous control of the involuntary muscles. We know that one can increase his heart beat by breathing much more rapidly; he can stimulate the churning of the stomach by an effort of the will; but here the involuntary muscles are forced into action by the voluntary muscles. In this way the involuntary muscles would seem to represent a finely adjusted automatism. Fundamentally, however, they really depend absolutely upon control of the nervous system. When influenced by the voluntary muscles in this seemingly automatic action, it is really the nerves which are first affected, they acting in turn upon the involuntary muscles. Let anything happen to the nerves and the involuntary muscles are motionless.

TAXIS ARE HELD AS PUBLIC UTILITIES

Columbus, Oct. 24.—Taxicabs were held to be public utilities and their owners were held responsible for acts committed by drivers on any trips made in a company's car at any time by an Ohio supreme court decision. The ruling came in the case of Korner & Son, Bucyrus taxi owners, against Gladys Cosgrove, who had won a suit against the company in the lower courts for the actions of a driver employed by Korner. Miss Cosgrove's victory was upheld.

Remarkable Kidney Relief

R. M. Flenor, Otterbein, Ind. Writes: "I had suffered from kidney trouble for twenty five years. Nothing helped me. Kept getting worse. Inflammation of bladder set in, and I gave up all hope. Was induced to try DODD'S. Took only two boxes, and I am now sound and well. I regard my cure as remarkable." Banish kidney or urinary trouble, drive away backache, pain, rheumatism, tired-worn out feeling with Dodd's Kidney Pills. Prompt relief money back. The first freeze-up of the season occurred last night and it froze so hard that a water pipe burst at the Rader brick yard north of this city. Rather early in the season for a freezeup. The thermometer marked 32 degrees at an early hour.

Mr. Lester Barnes, who contemplated going to Springfield to take a position has decided to remain in Xenia and continue at the old stand in the White Paper Store.

The Elks now have everything in shape so that on next Wednesday night rehearsals for the Big Minstrel Show will begin. A contract has just been closed by which they will be enabled to secure the advantage of $4,000 worth of new scenery, costumes etc.

The old disreputable dinkie that has been having an eventful career in this city met with an accident a night or two ago which has put it out of business. The new dinkie which has been put on is a big improvement, being painted yellow and having vestibules.

HOLLENCAMP WILL PLAY WITH ANTIOCH BALANCE OF SEASON

Tom Hollencamp, former Central High football star, will probably play halfback for the Antioch College eleven when it meets Heidelberg, November 2.

From the showing being made by the B. Division team, indications are that this eleven will be much stronger than the A Division eleven that played during the first five weeks under Antioch's co-operative plan of study.

Hollencamp is in B division and is getting his first trial with the eleven now. The new squad averages over 160 pounds and three letter men. Paul Schwartz, tackle, C. Woolridge, full back and Burns Weston, halfback, are letter men with the team. Slim Dawson of A Division will also be eligible with this squad.

Coach Earl Prugh will probably line the team up with Rose and Burnham or Dawson at the ends; Schwartz, straubler and Stewart, tackles; Whitaker and Bratton or Reel, guards; Bostick, center; Farley, quarterback; Hollencamp and Weston or Frierer, halfbacks and Woolridge, fullback. After the Heidelberg game, Antioch will close its season with Cedarville at Cedarville in the second annual meeting between these schools.

Women to attract must Radiate Health!

BEAUTY is the magnet which draws all eyes—and back to beauty—Health—working a silently—Red blood tingling through the vein—the glow of youth in the cheeks—the spring of eagerness, of vim, of vitality in the walk—the ever graceful air, unrestrained by care or worry—All the charms of beauty. All the works of health.

Men are fascinated by the charm of beauty. Women gaze with envy, secretly praying for that attractiveness that is not theirs.

But why the wondering—the hoping—the praying for that craved-for attractiveness—that beauty. Good looks is the barometer of one's condition. Good health radiates beauty. S. S. S. purifies the blood—creates new red blood cells—rids the system of impurities which make beauty an attractiveness impossible. As women to attract must radiate health so must they keep their systems free from impurities and their red blood cells ever increasing. S. S. S. does both.

S. S. S., since 1828, has been ridding the system of impurities—pimples, blackheads, boils, eczema and rheumatism—building red blood cells—adding women to be attractive by radiating health. S. S. S. is made of carefully selected herbs and barks, scientifically prepared and proportioned. All good drug stores carry it.

S. S. S. It is more economical to purchase the large size bottle.

CENTRAL HIGH ELEVEN WILL ATTEMPT TO DEDICATE COX FIELD WITH WIN FRIDAY

Can the Central High School football team continue to exercise its jinx over the Springfield High School eleven?

This question will be answered Friday afternoon at Cox Memorial Athletic Field, when the Springfield aggregation comes here.

For the last two seasons the Central High eleven has been walloping Springfield and making the Clark County bunch like it. Last year Captain Don Currie led his team to a 20 to 0 victory over the Springfielders in their own balliwick in the last game of the season. The year before, Xenia registered a 24 to 0 victory over Springfield at Gatch Field.

The game was booked this year with the greatest difficulty. Coach Oliver Matheny displaying the greatest reluctance in taking on the blue and white gridders again.

Springfield High did not lose a game this season until Stivers High of Dayton broke the spell with a 27 to 0 defeat last Saturday. Coach Matheny's outfit was crippled by the absence of Captain Al Dickson from the lineup and the peppery leader is expected to be back in the fray for the Xenia game. On the other hand, Coach "Puss" Burnage, who would rather beat Springfield than any team on the schedule, has been having tough luck with his gridiron combination.

Practically all green an inexperienced men, the team has been developing too slowly, and has taken four defeats in the beginning of the most disastrous season the school has faced for several years. Wilmington pried off the opener, the team dropped 2 games to West Milton and last week bowed to Greenville High. Injuries too have hurt the chances of the eleven, and entirely different team will take the field for Friday's fray.

Art Currie, veteran backfield man, has taken the place on the bench vacated by Washburn, veteran flanker. Washburn has been out since the first game with a bad knee, but will be back in action Friday afternoon. Currie, on the other hand, injured his knee in the Greenville game and will probably not be able to play. For this reason, Coach Burgner has again been forced to shift quarterbacks.

Motoroff, who started the season at quarter, has been shifted to right guard, where he is serving to plug a weak line. With Currie on the bench, Holton, crack fullback, has been given the job of calling signals and is getting away with the new assignment in great shape. Zell and Captain Don Fuller both crack backfield men are now playing in top form at their positions. Arnold Boxwell got his gridiron baptism at Greenville last week and will probably be used at fullback Friday afternoon. The kid seems to be anxious to follow in the footsteps of his illustrious brother, Paul, and is said to be showing great form.

Doggett, a guard, was used up badly in the Greenville game and may be out of the contest here Friday. Leonard, Edwards and the Jordan brothers may be alternated at his position. Horner will play center no doubt, with Scurry and Keller at the tackles and Schwab and Washburn at the ends.

Injuries too have hurt the chances of the eleven, and entirely different team will take the field for Friday's fray.

Art Currie, veteran backfield man, has taken the place on the bench vacated by Washburn, veteran flanker. Washburn has been out since the first game with a bad knee, but will be back in action Friday afternoon. Currie, on the other hand, injured his knee in the Greenville game and will probably not be able to play. For this reason, Coach Burgner has again been forced to shift quarterbacks.

Motoroff, who started the season at quarter, has been shifted to right guard, where he is serving to plug a weak line. With Currie on the bench, Holton, crack fullback, has been given the job of calling signals and is getting away with the new assignment in great shape. Zell and Captain Don Fuller both crack backfield men are now playing in top form at their positions. Arnold Boxwell got his gridiron baptism at Greenville last week and will probably be used at fullback Friday afternoon. The kid seems to be anxious to follow in the footsteps of his illustrious brother, Paul, and is said to be showing great form.

Doggett, a guard, was used up badly in the Greenville game and may be out of the contest here Friday. Leonard, Edwards and the Jordan brothers may be alternated at his position. Horner will play center no doubt, with Scurry and Keller at the tackles and Schwab and Washburn at the ends.

Practically all green an inexperienced men, the team has been developing too slowly, and has taken four defeats in the beginning of the most disastrous season the school has faced for several years. Wilmington pried off the opener, the team dropped 2 games to West Milton and last week bowed to Greenville High. Injuries too have hurt the chances of the eleven, and entirely different team will take the field for Friday's fray.

Lad On Way West For Health Asks Work Here

Charitable organizations were appealed to Tuesday in behalf of Edward C. Salzer 18, of Rochester, N. Y., who was forced to seek shelter at Police Headquarters Monday because of illness while attempting to make his way to Arizona for the benefit of his lungs.

Salzer lost his right hand in an explosion in a government laboratory, he claims, the gases from the explosion affecting his lungs, which causes him difficulty in breathing. In the hopes of restoring his health in the climate recommended in Arizona, he youth left Rochester in July on a Powercycle, camping along the way and keeping himself by working at his trade of sign painter.

A diary started in August shows he visited Ripley, N. Y., Jeromeville O., Cleveland, Wooster, Westerville and Loudenville, before arriving here. Framps, he claims, held him up when he offered to share his meals with them one night, and stole his sign painting kit valued at $10, a rifle which had been presented to him by Rochester Boy Scouts and his knapsack containing all of his equipment. Later his motorcycle refused to work properly and he finally abandoned it in Loudenville, intending to make his way to Arizona, by automobile or freight train.

Arriving here by train, the lad who claims he was a Boy Scout in Rochester until after he passed the age limit, sought shelter at police headquarters where he was held resting Wednesday. He says walk causes him shortness of breath. His family in Rochester is unable to help him, the lad avers.

The Rev. W. H. Tilford, chairman of Greene County Chapter, American Red Cross, visited the youth in the city jail Tuesday morning.

The boy scorns aid other than assistance in getting a job. Although only having one hand, he says he will work as a mechanic.

WORN NERVES

Nervous troubles, with backaches, dizzy spells, queer pains and irregular kidneys, give reason to suspect kidney weakness and to try the remedy that has helped your neighbors. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. Mary Mattox, 12 Leaman St., Xenia, says: "My kidneys became disordered and I suffered a great deal from pains in my back. My back seemed to throb and there was a steady ache across it just over my kidneys. My back was sore and lame and felt so knotted-up at times I could hardly move. Sharp pains shot through my back when I stooped over and I was dizzy and nervous as well as tired and worn out. My kidneys were irregular in action. My bladder became inflamed and my condition became serious. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly praised so I got some at Sayre & Hemphill's Drug Store. A few boxes did excellent work for me. The troubles left and I again knew what good health meant."

LAWYERS TO TALK ON CONSTITUTION TO HIGH SCHOOLS

Following the suggestions of the American Bar Association recommending lawyers to be active in giving out information upon the Constitution of the United States, members of the Greene County Bar Association will appear with brief talks or lectures on Constitutional topics before the various high schools of the county Thursday, November 1, at two o'clock.

These meetings will be open to the public and the speakers at the various points will be as follows: Osborn, J. K. Williamson; Alpha, M. D. Rice, Caesar Creek, H. D. Smith; Cedarville high school, Olin, Charles H. Kaye; Spring Valley, L. T. Marshall; Bellbrook, Judge J. C. Johnson; Bowersville, J. C. Finney; Yellow Springs, W. L. Auller; Jamestown, Hon. H. L. Smith; Clifton, Frank H. Dean.

The object of these talks will be to increase the knowledge in the practical operation of the National Constitution and to strengthen minds against hostile and revolutionary efforts aimed at its overthrow.

The Bar Association will also willingly assist any community gathering or any group, wishing any discussion before them of these topics affecting the Constitution or any question of good citizenship.

Three Greene County Villages Seek Court Injunction Against Two Gas Companies

Charging that The Logan Gas Company has threatened to cut off its supply of gas to The Jantha Light and Fuel Company, a distributing company that furnishes gas to the villages of Yellow Springs, Osborn and Fairfield in Greene County and that these companies are acting in collusion for the apparent purpose of forcing a raise in gas rates, these villages filed suit in Common Pleas Court Wednesday morning naming the two companies and Edward Kagey, receiver of The Jantha Light and Fuel Company as defendants asking for a mandatory order requiring these companies to continue to furnish gas and a permanent injunction to prevent them carrying out their threat.

The suit was filed with Clerk of Courts Harvey Elam early Wednesday morning by City Solicitor J. A. Finney of this city, representing the village of Yellow Springs and by Morris D. Rice, attorney of Osborn representing Osborn and Fairfield. Similar suits were filed simultaneously in 14 cities and villages including, Eaton, West Alexander, Lewisburg, New Paris, Eldorado, West Manchester, Brookerville, Greenville and others, the suits being filed in the Common Pleas Courts of Montgomery, Darke, Preble and Greene Counties.

The Jantha Light and Fuel Company was granted a franchise some time ago to furnish gas in each of these Greene County villages at a certain rate, which was increased in 1920, operating under the contract with The Logan Gas Company, which contract is said to expire October 31, at which time The Logan Company threatens to cut off its supply of gas, from The Jantha Company, forcing that company to discontinue its service to these villages.

The petition filed here asserts The Logan Company has sufficient gas to furnish The Jantha Company and all the consumers of that company, and is now furnishing gas to the city of Richmond, Ind., and other cities in that state obtaining the supply from fields in Ohio and West Virginia. The petition alleges The Logan Company is a common carrier and subject to all the duties and liabilities of such carriers under the laws of the state, and is operating under a franchise through Greene County granted by the county commissioners.

The plaintiffs declare the Logan Company has not applied to the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio for permission to cut off its supply of gas to The Jantha Company. The petition alleges that in 1920,

the Logan Company asked the Utilities Commission for permission to cut off the supply of gas furnished to The Jantha Company declaring the latter company had not paid certain bills, and that the Utilities Commission took jurisdiction of the controversy, hearing the evidence, but that the matter is still pending no decision ever having been determined.

On this declaration the plaintiffs aver the Jantha Company is a subordinate company of The Logan Company and that each received higher rates in 1920 following the controversy. The plaintiffs thus declare the present threat is by collusion between the two companies for the apparent purpose of getting a raise in rates. The petition declares further that The Logan Gas Company is successor to The Logan Natural Gas and Fuel Company, which was granted a franchise to lay pipe lines in Greene County May 17, 1913 with the stipulation that it should furnish gas to the villages of Fairfield, Osborn and Yellow Springs, safe franchise being still in force.

Copies of the franchise, which does not expire until 1938, are attached to the petition. The plaintiffs declare they have always paid for the gas at the rate asked and are willing to pay for the gas consumed according to the rates established by the Public Utilities Commission, and that if the supply is cut off these villages will be left without adequate fuel for the winter entailing great hardships, suffering and expense.

The petition asks that the injunction asked for be in effect until the Public Utilities Commission gives permission to cut off the gas and that the companies be compelled to furnish gas to the villages named until such a time.

A temporary restraining order was allowed in Common Pleas Court Wednesday morning by Judge R. L. Gowdy, insuring that the supply will not be cut off October 31 or pending a hearing.

How to Make Pine Cough Syrup at Home

Has no equal for prompt results. Takes but a moment to prepare, and saves you about $2.

Pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually pure sugar syrup. To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and tastes very pleasant. You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—infamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs. Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

A WIFE'S STORY

By Jane Phelps

Synopsis of Preceding Chapters

Ruby Atkins marries Paul Norwood, a man of little strength of character, who has dissipated a fortune. Born to money he cannot get along without it. She is very unsuspecting, loves him dearly, and practically supports herself and two daughters (Joan and Laura) for the five years he is in France, Dave Logan, a man of bad reputation, becomes a friend of the family.

Norwood returns and the family's finances improve, so gradually that no suspicion is aroused in Ruby's mind. Paul buys a house on the Sound and takes many short trips, never telling where he is going. Logan makes love to Ruby who sends him away. Joan, wilful and inclined to be wild, entertains; Ruby overhears Clem Sanders say of her that he would never marry a girl who drank and whose father was a bootlegger. Ruby does not believe until Revenue Agents visit the house and she is convinced. Unknown to her mother, Joan has overheard Sanders' remark also. She goes out on the water and is brought home by two men.

WILFUL JOAN FINDS PEACE AT LAST

Chapter LXI
"What is it? What has happened?" I cried, rushing toward them, followed by Laura. "Bring her in. Oh, she has fallen in the water!" I almost screamed as I saw her dripping form. "She is dead—drowned," one of the men said in a husky voice. "Oh, no! No!" I cried. "Lay her down quickly. Call a doctor, Laura. She can't be dead. She can't be." But even as I cried the words I knew she was gone, my lovely Joan. I opened her waist. I applied all the first aid helps I could think of, but of no avail. The doctor came. "She isn't dead. She has fainted, is unconscious. Hurry and save her—" I clutched his coat. "It's too late," he said. "She is beyond help. She has been for some time."

I knew no more.

When I recovered from my long faint, Laura was bending over me, the doctor at her side.

"What is it? What has happened?" I asked, struggling to rise. Then it all came to me—the two men, my beautiful drowned Joan—and with a cry I ran to her.

It is impossible to tell of my anguish as I gazed on her lovely face, her motionless form. I felt the world rocking about me, and fell on my knees beside my darling girl, praying, weeping wildly. Laura's arms were about me, her tears mingled with mine.

The doctor, an elderly man, attended to all the harrowing details for us, insofar as he could. After a time he asked:

"Where can I get in touch with Mr. Norwood?"

"Oh, I can't tell you. I don't know! He is in Canada somewhere," I replied. Not once had I thought of Paul, but now the thought of our loneliness added poignancy to my grief.

In the living room by my beautiful daughter. The doctor, the coroner, had gone, Laura and I were alone with our dead.

I had asked no questions, but Laura told me the two men had seen the boat floating and thought it was come unstuffed from its moorings and rowing out had found Joan, drowned.

Alone, we kept our vigil by her, lovelier in death than she had been in life. A peaceful look on her face. She had not suffered.

All night we never left her, but when morning came Laura insisted that I bathe and change.

"Do, Mother dear. We will have to keep up, and it will freshen you."

Blindly I obeyed.

After I had finished my toilet I went into the room the girls had so long occupied together, the room I had tried to make beautiful for Joan. I stood before her dressing table, idly moving the toilet articles she never would use again. Under the mirror I found a sealed envelope addressed to me.

With trembling hands I opened it, a sudden premonition turning me cold with dread. With eyes blurred by tears I read:

"Forgive me, Mother. But I couldn't stand it any longer. I heard what Clem said about me that day in the summer house—that he would not marry a girl who drank, and whose father was a bootlegger. Poor Mother, I have added to your sorrows but I know it is for the best. I am what I am, and perhaps my going will make Dad see what he is doing to you and Laura. I love him. Love you all. Goodbye, Joan."

It had not been an accident. Joan had deliberately drowned herself. My little Joan.

No one must suspect it, not even Laura. This thought came to me after a time. I would shield Joan's name and save her young sister from the knowledge that she had taken her own life. But now to my own sorrow was added the thought that perhaps I could have saved her. If I had talked to her of Clem, if I could have gained her confidence about his cruel speech, I might have given her courage to go on. "Oh, why haven't I been a better mother?" I moaned as I carefully hid the pitiful little note, and returned to lieve Laura.

I tenderly withdrew from the clinging arms, and as quietly as I could, insisted that Laura go and rest. I must be brave for her sake, must try not to show the shock the knowledge that Joan had taken her own life had been.
